MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING, APRIL 27, 1990

The Annual Meeting of the Heart of America Carnival Glass Association was held at the Holiday Inn, I-35 and 95th St. in Lenexa, Kansas. The meeting was called to order at 2:00 P.M. by President Robert Grissom. The minutes of the last Annual Meeting were read by Secretary Nadine Paulsen and they were approved as read. Treasurer Doug Peters gave his report and it was approved and filed for audit.

Discussion was brought up as to how necessary are the membership cards. Several ideas were presented, but none were decided on. With the raising of postage next February 1, we wondered how many people really cared about the cards and did they even use them.

Hartung Book #6 will have to be reprinted again and we feel we will have to raise the cost, as each time it is costing us more to have them reprinted.

The past year we did not have a souvenir made because we (the Board) decided to have a book printed of Mr. Britts' articles in the Bulletin. The expense of making a mold is so costly and we haven't been able to sell as many souvenirs as we used to. We sent some souvenirs to Mr. Fenton and his people are painting them. We also had some whimsys made and some one-of-a-kind pieces. We will auction them off at the Banquet.

President Grissom reminded everyone that if they had a room display, to make sure they were signed up so their display could be judged.

The red mugs that are left from the Banquet may be purchased for $12.50 per mug.

Different Clubs announced their Conventions coming up this year.

President Grissom said the offices of Vice-President, Treasurer, and Bulletin Secretary were to be voted upon this year. Doug Peters said he would take the Treasurers position, Eleanor Mochel would take the Bulletin Secretary's position and Daryl Strohm would take the position of Vice-President. President Grissom asked for nominations from the floor. There were none. Motion was made by Don LaCock and seconded by John Britt that we accept Daryl Strohm for Vice-President. The motion was made by Joe Williams to accept all the people who were nominated and agree for all of them to be elected for their office. It was seconded by Max Kalbrener. The following have been elected to office for the next two years: Vice-President, Daryl Strohm; Treasurer, Doug Peters; Bulletin Secretary, Eleanor Mochel. Eleanor Mochel thanked the people who sent in articles for the Bulletin and she would like to have more of them. She also announced all bulletins are mailed at the same time.

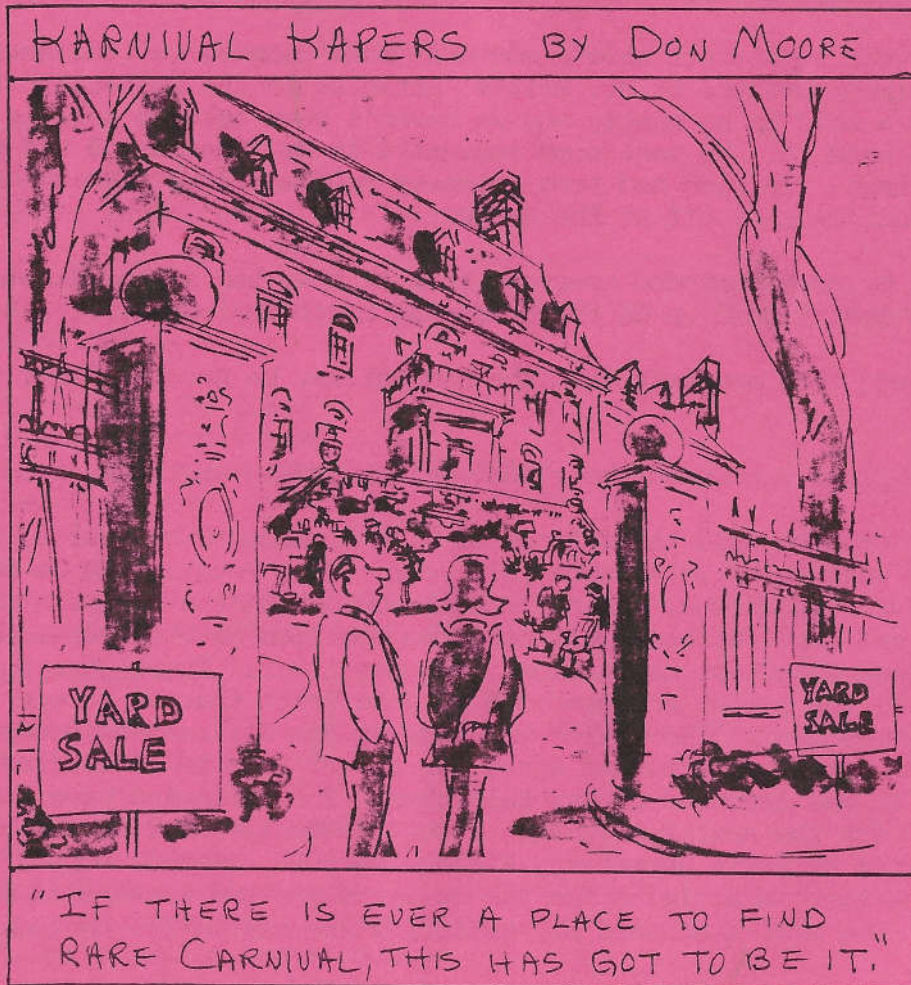

It was asked about marketing the Hartung Books, but we are a non-profit organization so we can only sell them to a member of the Club.

Joe Williams presented Bob Grissom with a pen holder he had made from a broken compote. It was on a wooden base. Bob accepted graciously. Very pretty, Joe!

A motion was made and seconded for the meeting to be adjourned.

NADINE PAULSEN
Secretary
H.O.A.C.G.A.

Members starting checking in at the Motel as early as Monday. By Wednesday evening, several of the rooms had displays set up and their glass for sale. You could see several people hurrying from room to room to see what was being offered for sale. By Thursday, most of the rooms were occupied and it was looking like a Carnival Glass Convention was in progress.

As always, one of the many highlights of a Convention are the room displays. Room displays give us all an opportunity to see some nice glass. It is always helpful and informative to the newer collectors. We always appreciate members when they are willing to share their glass with others. Another real asset to the members attending the Convention are the educational programs. We were very fortunate this year to have four very exceptional programs given by knowledgeable members. Thanks to all of those who shared their glass with us.

Everyone attending the Convention were treated to four outstanding programs given by very capable collectors. The first program on Thursday afternoon got the Convention off to a very nice start when Singleton Bailey of Loris, South Carolina displayed and talked about his Millersburg Peacocks, Peacock & Urn, Trout & Fly & Big Fish pieces. It was an outstanding display and a very informative talk. Singleton, we are very appreciative for your sharing this part of your collection with us.

The second program on Thursday evening was given by Garth Irby of St. Louis, Missouri. He displayed and talked about his collection of small bowls. Garth defined little bowls as ones that have an associated large bowl. His display had about 60 different small bowls. This program was very interesting and gave members an opportunity to view some unusual small bowls and patterns that we do not see very often. We enjoyed the display and the presentation by Garth.

The third program was presented Friday morning by the Texas Trio of Joyce Seale, Bob Allaire and Richard Cinclair. Their program was on Red Carnival. The display consisted of 58 pieces with 50 different patterns. A booklet had been prepared for their talk, it listed all of the known patterns in red, along with some other information about Red Carnival. Those members that were not present missed seeing a beautiful display and having a very informative talk presented to them. Thanks Richard Cinclair for the talk and thanks to Joyce and Bob for their able assistance and for sharing your beautiful glass. You Texas Convention people have a program that has already been rehearsed, so I know all of you members would enjoy seeing it at your 1991 Convention.

Mr. Harold Cox was asked to present a program on Peacock & Urn ice cream sets and to do it at the Banquet. Harold displayed his sets in their order of how he purchased them and explained each sets personality. The display of Peacocks was just outstanding and worth the trip to the Convention just to see them. Besides giving a nice talk about his sets, Harold did an outstanding job of entertaining those attending the Banquet. If anyone needs a good Banquet speaker, Harold is probably ready. Harold celebrated his 71st birthday as our Banquet Speaker. Mrs. Cox said that she thought this was the last flight for the Peacocks, they were going back home to their roost. Thanks Harold for sharing your knowledge of the beautiful glass with us.

It is a real tribute to Carnival Glass collectors when they are willing to take their glass out of the safety and security of their homes, pack them in boxes, put it in their back seat, haul it from 200 to 1,500 miles one way, in order to share it with other collectors. All of this effort is put into it just because we enjoy our glass and sharing with others. Thanks to each of those who gave the programs or that participated in any way.

Friday evening and Saturday, Jim Seeck auctioned glass from the Al Roudenhouse collection. Jim did a very good job. As you know, Al had collected water sets for many years. Several rare and scarce pitchers and tumblers were included in the auction. A lot of collectors went home with some choice pieces of Carnival Glass.

Friday evening after the auction, the Hospitality Room was opened and served pie to those attending the Convention. This gave us all a chance just to relax and visit with old friends and to meet some new collectors. As usual, when Carnival Glass collectors get together, they can enjoy themselves. A lot of coffee and 50 pies were served; there was a flavor for everyone to enjoy.

On Sunday morning, we met for breakfast and said our goodbyes. Hope to see everyone again next year!

ROBERT GRISSOM

NOTE: Each of the educational programs were video taped and will be available for members to order at a later time.

As in years past, the room displays were all outstanding, with much creativity, and time consuming thought put into each. We had 80 displays, which is up from last year. There were 5 categories from which to choose, all one color, maker, pattern, theme and rarities.

MINUTES OF THE MONTHLY H.O.A.C.G.A. MEETING, MAY, 1990

The monthly meeting of the Heart of America Carnival Glass Association was held at the Raytown City Hall. The meeting was called to order by President Grissom. Nadine Paulsen, Secretary; read the minutes and they were approved as read. The Treasurer Doug Peters, gave his report and it was approved and filed for audit.

We have received our printing bill for Mr. Britts' book, which was $6,969.00. The bill for the inserts was $4,800.00, so we have some outstanding bills coming up. Mr. Britts' book cost more than anticipated, so we may have to raise the price.

We finally got the breakfast cost for the Convention down to $5.50, but we do not know whether we will be able to continue paying for the breakfast, as the cost has raised so much.

President Grissom thought the motel was more cooperative this year and the Convention went fairly smoothly.

The video tapes for the educational programs at the Convention are finished. We hope to have them copied and if they are successful, we will have them for sale to members who want them. We would like to have any suggestions for ways we can better our Convention. If you have any comments, please notify any Club officer or the President.

John Woody will furnish the auction for next years Convention. We would like to have suggestions for next years educational programs. If anyone would like to give a program on any particular subject, please contact President Grissom.

It was suggested that we have the Treasurers Report and the minutes of the meetings included in the Bulletin each month. Also more articles from our members on exciting finds or stories about Carnival, listing of new members, and a day set for the mailing of the Bulletin.

The total sales on the whimsys were $2,100.00. The clock sold for $305.00, which was the highest item sold.

We had coffee, then President Grissom talked about the flower pattern Carnival Glass brought to the meeting for the program.

The next meeting will be at the Raytown City Hall at 2:00 P.M. on June 24, 1990. The program will be on fruit patterns.

NORTHWOOD'S PLUMS & CHERRIES TUMBLER

The Plums & Cherries tumbler that is shown above, is the only one that has ever been reported in Carnival Glass. In fact, there are only a very few pieces of this pattern that are known to exist in Carnival Glass. Another example of this pattern is a blue spooner that will be sold from the Ludeman collection at the 1990 I.C.G.A. Convention auction in July.

The featured Plums & Cherries tumbler is one of those tumblers that is certainly more rare than the Frolicking Bear. This is not to say, however, that it is more desirable or more valuable than the very popular Frolicking Bear tumbler, which without a doubt is the top Carnival Glass tumbler in existence. We expect it to hold that high rating for many years to come. It is our opinion, however, that this very fine Plums & Cherries tumbler is certainly one of the finest Carnival Glass tumblers that has surfaced since the Big Butterfly and Frolicking Bears tumblers.

In the two different photos, we have illustrated both sides of this well-designed pattern. Notice that the cherries are featured on one side, while plums are used on the opposite side. Also notice that the panels and shape of the tumbler is exactly the same as a number of other Northwood tumblers such as Singing Birds, Springtime, Oriental Poppy, Dandelion, Greek Key and Wishbone. All of these tumblers contain the eight panels and exact shape. Each one of these Northwood tumblers, of course, feature a different pattern.

Occasionally you might see the name "Two Fruits" being used for this pattern, but we agree with the late William Heacock that this name should be dropped. This is due to the name "Two Fruits" being earlier assigned to a Fenton divided relish dish. To avoid confusion with the Fenton Two Fruits version, we believe the name "Plums & Cherries" should be the sole name for this pattern.

We might add that this tumbler can also be found in clear pressed glass with factory painted red cherries and plums. The leaves and band are painted in gold. The tumblers contain the underlined (N) in a circle that is placed on the inside bottom of the base. These tumblers are also quite scarce and are only seldom seen. The Plums & Cherries pattern was also made in table sets and berry sets.

The featured Plums & Cherries Carnival Glass tumbler was found by Paul Ehnis in a Dallas area flea market. We thank him for sharing the photos with us and congratulate him on his find. We believe that the many readers of this series will be interested to know that a tumbler in this pattern does exist in Carnival Glass. It is one that you might want to look for on your future buying trips.

This fine and very rare tumbler marks our 149th entry into this Educational Tumbler Series. Next month we will feature the Pastel Panels tumbler, a pattern that was made by the Fenton Art Glass Company.

JOHN & LUCILE BRITT

THE WESTERN THISTLE VASE

THE WESTERN THISTLE VASE AND TUMBLER

THE WESTERN THISTLE VASE

This rather small vase is only 5 inches high and has a top opening of $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches. The base is 2 inches in diameter and contains an eight pointed star that is pressed into the underside. The color is in deep marigold with very fine iridescence.

We think this vase is quite interesting. After studying this pattern for some time, we found it to be the same as that used on the popular Western Thistle tumbler. In the second photo we show the vase alongside a tumbler in that pattern.

The pattern was made by Riihimaki of Finland. This company also made the Drapery Variet and Wide Panelled Thistle pattern tumblers. Their production of Carnival Glass also includes some copies of American Carnival Glass patterns such as Tiger Lily.

This is #137 in our Pictorial Pattern Parade series. Next month we will feature the unusual and very cute little Ribbed Panels mustard dish. This little marigold piece is held in a three footed metal structure that also holds a tiny spoon for serving. More about this miniature piece in next months column.

JOHN & LUCILLE BRITT

We planned on leaving Ontario on November 17, 1989, and would pack the car and boat Thursday night, after we got home from the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto. Arrived home at 6:30 and found 2" of snow on the ground. Opened the boat and snow was all inside and it was still snowing. Decided not to leave as forecast was calling for more snow. Woke up Friday morning and the sun was shining. Decided to pack and leave. Took our time and got to Florida on Monday. Beautiful weather, lots of sun. Just the right weather to hunt for Carnival.

At one shop the owner told me there was a large estate tag sale the next day with lots of Carnival Glass. He gave me the address and I went. Now this sale was 3 hours away and the fellow said I had to be there by 6:00 A.M. or I'd never get in by 9:00 A.M. I got there at 5:40 A.M. and was 10th in line. One fellow slept there all night. At 7:00 A.M. a clerk came and gave out numbers. There were already 65 there. Everything is priced and if you pick it up and hang onto it, it is sold. You have to check things out in a hurry. Got an amethyst Panelled Dandelion water set, a white Poppy Show plate, mari-gold Imperial Grape plate, white Rustic funeral vase and about 20 more pieces of more common pieces, some opalescent glass and stretch.

I have bought a lot of Carnival Glass through the mail from the H.O.A.C.G.A. Bulletin and I really think there needs to be a policy change. If the piece is not as advertised, such as "wrong pattern or shape, wrong color or damaged and not advertised as such", the purchaser should receive the postage & insurance paid to return the item. I had to return 16 items. When they are large pieces such as punch bowls, postage adds up. I think this should be brought up at a meeting and discussed.

On a happier note, I attended the Florida Convention and had a wonderful time. Found some nice pieces and saw a lot of beautiful Carnival.

One piece that surfaced and was shown at the "Show & Tell" on Thursday night was a Fenton Orange Tree 9" plate in a beautiful yellow with excellent iridescence. The color reminds you of yellow depression glass. John Britt & Tom Burns did a great job on identification. John Britt showed his Panther bowl in Nile Green, and a Big Fish bowl in the banana boat shape. Last year I had a woman phone me about the Big Fish bowl and I made arrangements to go and buy it. She phoned at 6:30 A.M. that morning and said she had changed her mind. Tried to talk to her later with no success.

I was lucky enough to be able to buy the yellow Orange Tree plate. As far as I could find out from John & Tom it is the only one known. Who knows what will turn up next. The Convention was well ran by the Tampa Bay Club with a new location. Not many members, but hard workers. Looking forward to next year.

The Convention will be September 20-22, 1990 at the Travelodge Inn, in Cornwall, Ontario, Canada. Reservations may be made by calling 613-932-4213. Please mention the C.C.G.A. Convention when calling.

There will be an outstanding auction with many fine pieces of glass offered.

Guest speakers will be Robert and Geneva Leonard from Michigan. They will be sharing their collection of table sets. As our theme this year as "Setting your Table with Carnival", I'm sure their talk will greatly enhance our theme and Convention.

TAMPA BAY CARNIVAL GLASS CLUB NEWS

The major thrust of business was the 1991 Jamboree committee appointments. It was really gratifying to have our principals from the 1990 Convention volunteer to take on the same assignments as last year. Naomi Calkins will be Chairperson, and Shirley Conyers will again take on the task of Programs with Barbara Hobbs giving the Advertising/Publicity job her expertise. I must say that the people named were indeed the backbone of the 1990 Jamboree and the 1991 effort promises to be even more successful! Thanks all for taking on the jobs. Thanks, too, to all the unnamed here that contributed to the success in the past.

Indications are that the banquet menu will be received with the idea of providing different choices. The matter of "blocking" rooms to keep us closer together in the motel will be approached. Also, the Raffle Prize is being looked into with the thought of upping the quality thereof.

On the aspects of programs for meetings, it was voted to obtain a VCR tape on Carnival Glass for showing at an early meeting. This should help to increase interest and also give some leads for "take-off" material for future meetings. (It is by no means intended to set the standard for future meetings.)

Our next meeting will be held at the new home of Tim & Kim Rice, 1778 Stable Trail, Palm Harbor, on Sunday, May 20, 1990 at 12:00 noon.

Larry and I wish to thank all our friends for their help. We were quite surprised and very happy that we were awarded a prize for our display at the Convention.

This past year as members, has been very enjoyable.

Just a short note to tell you how much your efforts in the Bulletin are appreciated. It's no small task to put out such a fine and informative Bulletin.

I wonder if there are any plans to upgrade the Notebook sections of the past few years.

I just attended an antique show and purchased 6 beautiful Many Fruits punch cups in blue. They are not listed in that color in the Notebook series. Maybe if enough people write in to report new colors not listed in the Notebook on various articles, a new listing could be added to future sections.

Thanks so much for such a fine Bulletin.

PAUL BERUBE
TIVERTON, RHODE ISLAND

I recently acquired my late mother-in-laws Carnival collection, which has not seen the light of day for over twenty years.

I was, of course, prepared for the many pieces for beginners, but some truly outstanding pieces emerged as well. Among them were a beautiful amethyst Concord plate and a green Blackberry Block tankard pitcher, both of which are perfect.

Any information as to their current value would be appreciated, as most of this collection has to be sold for lack of display space.
