MINUTES OF THE H.O.A.C.G.A. MONTHLY MEETING FOR JULY, 1990

The Heart of America Carnival Glass Association met July 23, 1990 at the Raytown City Hall. President Grissom called the meeting to order. No one took the minutes last month, as Secretary Nadine Paulsen was absent, so no minutes were read. Our Treasurer, Doug Peters was absent so we had no Treasurers Report.

For our September meeting, we are going to plan a dinner meeting at possibly the Holiday Inn across from Royal Stadium, if the Royals are not in town. Further details will be provided.

The VHS video tapes of our Educational Programs at the last H.O.A.C.G.A. Convention are available now. Cost is $20.00 each. We think they turned out very well.

President Grissom introduced Vernon and Carol Justice from Kansas City, Ks. We are glad to have them at our meeting and we hope they keep coming.

Nancy Stremming of Strasburg, Illinois passed away. She and her husband have been collectors for many years. The Club expresses their sympathy to Robert Stremming and sons.

We had some discussion on the souvenir for next year. A suggestion was made to have a small plate made in red.

Bob Merritt won our door prize of a hobnail spittoon in a dusty rose color. We are giving a prize away each month. Why don't you come and get your name in the drawing?

The next meeting will be at the Raytown City Hall on August 26, 1990 at 2:00 P.M. The Program will be on vases.

We had a break for coffee and then President Grissom identified the different rose bowls for the Program. The meeting was adjourned.

NADINE PAULSEN
Secretary

Nancy Stremming passed away July 15, 1990, after a long and couragous battle with cancer.

Nancy was always seen with a friendly smile and enjoyed her Carnival Glass friends. She, along with her husband Bob, were always willing to share their glass both at Conventions and at their home.

The H.O.A.C.G.A. Carnival Glass family wish to express their sincere and deepest sympathy to Bob and his sons, Dennis and Douglas, in their loss.

Nancy will truly be missed by all. Condolances may be sent to Robert Stremming and sons, Rt. 1, Box 16, Strasburg, Illinois 62465.

NEWS FROM OUR MEMBERS:

Dear Eleanor:

I have received the H.O.A.C.G.A. Educational Series Book I which I wish to congratulate all the people that were involved in the publication of such an informative book.

There is one piece of Carnival that is illustrated, which is the Crab Claw cruet on page 42 that I would like to make a comment on. Several years ago I read about this cruet in a collection in Ohio, as the only one known at that time and now I again see it illustrated in the Educational Series Book for the second time, which appears to be the same one.

About 10 years ago I was able to purchase the same cruet here in Brisbane, Australia in an antique shop, which I still have today in my collection.

The dimensions of mine are identical to the one shown. The bottom is of clear glass with a very rich marigold on the top half. When I found mine it had a stopper in it but it was the Octagon stopper, which of course, would have to be incorrect.

But then again Crab Claw and Octagon were both made by Imperial. It would be most interesting to know if there are any more Crab Claw cruets in existence elsewhere.

Best wishes to everyone,

Bill McNamara
Brisbane, Australia

INVERTED COIN DOT TUMBLERS

The Inverted Coin Dot tumbler is of the standard 4" size. The base is 2 1/8" in diameter and the top measures 3" across. The coin dots are found on the inside of the tumbler and are slightly raised from the surface. There are six horizontal rows that go around the tumbler. These rows of dots are slightly graduated with each row of dots becoming smaller as they near the base. The outside of the tumbler is completely smooth. The water pitchers that match these tumblers are of the bulbous type.

This is a good, sturdy tumbler of a simple, yet effective design. With these features to recommend it, one wonders why there seems to be so few of these water sets around.

The tumblers and pitchers that we have seen have all been in a good marigold color with very fine iridescence. Mrs. Hartung reports the tumbler being made in amethyst, however; but she had never seen the pitcher in that color. Richard Owens, in his Carnival Glass Tumbler Book, also reports the tumbler in amethyst. Edwards reports them being known in amethyst and green, but for some reason an amethyst or green Carnival Glass Coin Dot tumbler has completely escaped us. We have seen the Inverted Coin Dot tumblers in green and amethyst opalescent glass, but of course with no iridescence. An amethyst or green Coin Dot tumbler would be rare in Carnival Glass.

We believe that these six rowed Inverted Coin Dot tumblers were made by Fenton, even though we have not been able to find it in their old advertising material that we have seen.

INVERTED COIN DOT TUMBLER BY NORTHWOOD

Here we have a definite variant in this pattern. It has only 5 rows of coin dots instead of the six previously described in the regular Coin Dot tumbler. This tumbler contains the famous underlined (N) in a circle, so we know that it was made by Northwood. The glass seems to be slightly thicker, but the dimensions are about the same as the regular Inverted Coin Dot tumbler. The only color that we have seen is marigold, but again, we have also seen this one in opalescent glass colors. We have a signed one in green opalescent, but it is not iridised, so it is not Carnival Glass.

Mark this Northwood Variant, with the five rows of dots, as a rare tumbler. We have seen only four or five of them in our travels.

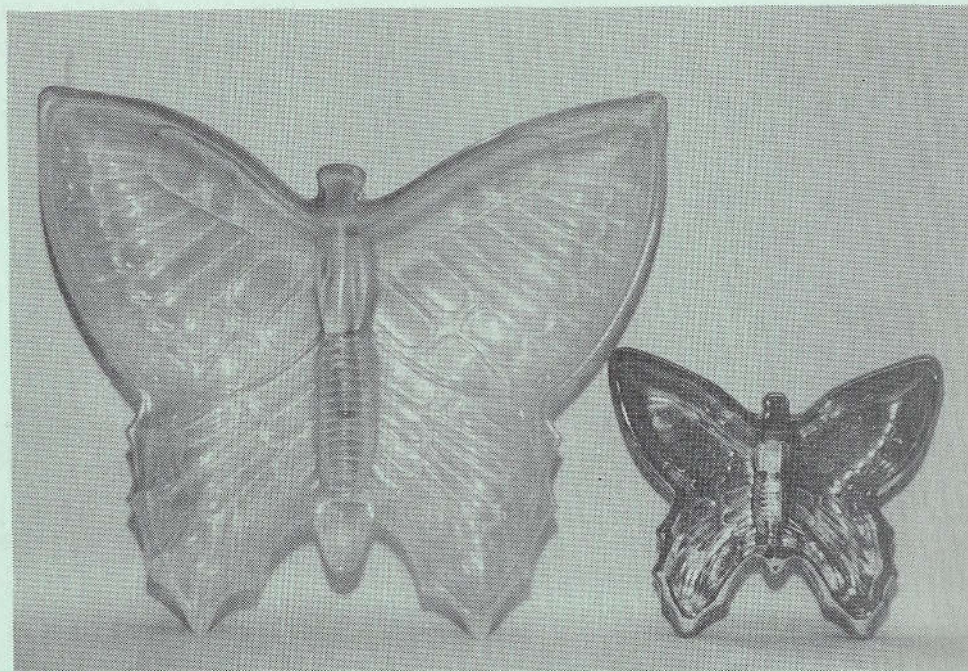

This article on the Inverted Coin Dot tumblers is #151 in our Carnival Glass tumbler series. Next month we will feature the Laurel Band tumbler.

PICTORIAL PATTERN PARADE

By John & Lucile Britt

PART OF THE BUTTERFLY PARTY SET

Shown above are two pieces from the Butterfly Party Set. Contrary to the popular belief that they were made for pin trays, these butterfly pieces were originally sold as a 5 piece party set containing one large tray and four smaller ones. No doubt, these pieces could be used as pin trays, but that is not what the maker had in mind. The manufacturer sold them as a party set.

After we had seen these pieces in complete sets at several antique shops, we were convinced that they were indeed meant to be used for serving mints, nuts or treats of some kind. But it was not until Raymond Notley of England photographed a complete set in the original box, owned by Bernard and Elsie Howe, also of England, that we had the absolute proof. Full credit should be given to Ray Notley and the Howe's of England for this interesting bit of accurate information.

The large butterfly tray, that is shown above, is in a pastel blue color with pinkish iridescence, while the small example is in marigold. We have seen only a few in the pastel blue color. Usually they are found in marigold. We have heard of one of these in smoke, but have not seen it.

These pieces are sometimes said to be English, but the original box proves that they were made by the Jeanette Glass Company of Jeanette, Pa. They were made in the 1960's.

The master tray is 8" across and a little over 7" wide. The small pieces are 4 1/4" across and 3 3/4" wide. We use the small example in our miniature collection. Some day we hope to find a set in the original box.

This is our Pictorial Pattern Parade article #139. We want to give special thanks to Raymond Notley and the Bernard Howe's for their help in this article.

H.O.A.C.G.A. EDUCATIONAL SERIES - BOOK I

Book I of the planned Educational Series is now available. This book consists of articles that have previously appeared in past H.O.A.C.G.A. monthly Bulletins. All of the articles in this first book were written by John & Lucile Britt. It contains about 150 different articles with at least one picture (black & white), for each article.

It is hoped this book will provide the collector with information about certain patterns, colors, and items about Carnival Glass, which is not available in other publications.

Instead of having a souvenir made in 1990, it was decided to have this book printed. We believe this book will better benefit both the present and future collector.

When this book was first offered to the members, it was priced at $12.50. After the book was finally completed and published, the cost was about 25% more than originally estimated, so the price has been changed to $15.00. We think it is a very good Carnival Glass book to add to your library.

The book may be ordered from the Treasurer, Doug Peters. The cost is $15.00 plus $2.50 postage.

BOB GRISSOM,
President

JOHN & LUCILE BRITT

I am quite an amateur at this Carnival Glass collecting, so I hope you or someone can help me with identification.

I am enclosing a picture of a white pitcher and five glasses trimmed in gold. The outside is very slightly stippled and the inside smooth. They are quite heavy with slight iridescence, however if held to the light, the iridescence is quite vivid.

I thank you in advance for any help you may be able to give me, and enclose a stamped envelope for reply.

BERNADETTE DONLIN
Omaha, Nebraska

Carnival Glass collectors gathered by the hundreds in enthusiastic testimony to the fame of the Woody Auction Company, Douglass, Kansas hosted the well-known man's auction April 6 and 7, 1990.

An undisputed "Price of Carnival" in the eyes of his constituents, Ivan Mitchell spent as many hours in the study of Carnival Glass as he did in the pursuit and purchases of the treasure. As his collection and his knowledge grew together, Ivan became more adamant in his early decision to buy only the best and his auction was just that - the best!

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Kell, neighbors to Ivan and Betty Mitchell, added some of their fine antiques to the offering, which in addition to Carnival included Art Glass, coins, guns, watches, clocks and other fine glassware.

One of the headliners for this sale was a rare Thistle plate in green, which sold for $2,750.00. Others were a stippled Three Fruits plate, aqua, for $1,600.00; Rose Show Varient, blue, $2,500.00; Rose Show plate, aqua green opalescent, $3,000.00; Rose Show plate, purple, $1,075.00; Concord plate, amethyst, $2,700.00; ruffled Orange Tree bowl, red, $1,300.00; small Vintage ice cream shaped bowl, red, $1,300.00; and Northwood Peacock & Urn chop plate, purple, $1,100.00.

Other "best cabinet" purchases included a dazzling Dragon & Lotus plate in blue, taken for $3,400.00; Northwood Peacock & Urn ice cream set, ice blue, $1,600.00; Fenton Peacock & Urn compote, red, $1,700.00; stippled Three Fruits bowl, green, $1,100.00; ruffled 9" Vintage bowl, red, $1,150.00; Birmingham Age Herald plate, amethyst, $1,500.00; stippled Grape & Cable plate, teal green, $1,000.00; Milady tankard and six tumblers, blue, $1,100.00; and an Inverted Strawberry pitcher and six tumblers, amethyst, $1,600.00.

Truly awesome, a Millersburg Mitered Ovals vase in green had bids jumping before settling at a $4,500.00 figure. Far from over-shadowed, an Embroidered Mums bowl in the blue opalescent color brought $3,800.00; Dragon & Lotus plate, marigold, $2,700.00; Lotus & Grape plate, green, $1,300.00; Poppy Show plate, blue $3,000.00; Fine Cut & Roses rosebowl, aqua opalescent $1,800.00; Persian Medallion bon bon, red, $1,050.00; and Peacocks on the Fence bowl in pie crust edge, green, $1,400.00.

CONNIE RAUSCH

THE I.C.G.A. CONVENTION

Cedar Rapids, Iowa seemed an awful long way for the Convention being held July 10-14. To get there for Tuesday, we had to leave early on Monday the 9th. We hated to miss it, as we had been to each one. This being our 24th. The Richard Noonans of Indiana also have attended everyone and its great to see them too.

We had good weather and arrived at the motel on Tuesday before noon, driving 584 miles to Galesburg, Illinois on Monday, didn't leave far to go, 725 miles altogether. Already many were set up and we hurried to get our little Butterflies Among the Flowers" ready before the evening "Pork Sandwich Party". Such a crowd for that and the food was excellent. I.C.G.A. always spoils us with these free foods. We had the usual ice cream party on Wednesday night complete with chocolate chip cookies and a big decorated sheet cake donated by Gary Cooper, who did a wonderful auction on Thursday of the Ludemans Carnival, over 175 bidders and the sale grossed $115,000.00 we heard. The aqua opal Peacock at the Fountain orange bowl was highest at $9,250.00 and the Corn Husk vase went for $7,000.00. Believe it went to Wisconsin.

The Hospitality Room was open three different times and wonderful cookies, punch, chips, etc. We all stuffed ourselves as there was no way to resist.

A highlight and of much interest was the seminar on Carnival Glass plates, colors, patterns, shapes, etc. given by Mr. Ray Hitchcock of Winterset, Iowa. He had over 50 of his beautiful plates and gave information on each one. Quite an interesting session for everyone.

Just great to see the lovely displays. I counted over 30, but know some were missed. The winners were the Dooleys' of Indiana with "Ice House Blues" for 1st place. Harold Coxs' of Ft. Wayne, Indiana with a carousel complete with music won 2nd place, Dennis Harps of Michigan won 3rd with a patriotic theme called "American Dream", Schnepps of Indiana won 4th with "Hearts & Flowers", Norman & Geneva Good won 5th with "Good Old Days". They were from Indiana too, so Indiana can be extra proud of 4 out of 5 winners.

Mr. Frank Fenton came to do a talk on Carnival reproductions, a long table full of pretty Carnival and lots of color slides on companies making new Carnival. A learning session there.

Banquet night always comes too soon, as we had to pack up before it, by having to leave at 4:30 A.M. on Saturday for home. We had to be in Akron by noon on Sunday for a special 80th birthday party. Banquet foods were Amish style and were the best ever. Bowls were placed on the table for self-serving. Must not forget the compote display room done so efficiently by Don and Barbara Chamberlain. About 275 compotes of every color, size, and shape.

After the Banquet, Gary Cooper auctioned off the compote whimsys and a beautiful afghan given by Mrs. Tomczak of Wisconsin. Sale grossed over $2,000.00. The John Britts brought over 200 pieces of their rare Carnival to talk about each piece for 2 hours. Just a great learning time. The Britts share their knowledge so unselfishly with all the Clubs by the many articles published in every newsletter. They were given special recognition too at the business meeting; so well deserved. We all appreciate every article they have done through the long years.

A nice lady from California came and donated $1,000.00 to I.C.G.A. in recognition of her husband George. A wonderful tribute and so appreciated. She was Carrie Stone of Larkspur, California.

It was a great Convention. Lee Markley gave out a few details. We had members from 4 countries, 312 registered from 25 states. Believe he said Wisconsin had the most. Don & Connie Moore sent a telegram since they could not come. They were missed too. 210 registered for the Banquet. I guess no one from West Virginia except us and Mr. Fenton.

We got home Monday at 3:30 with all kinds of chores to do and try to get ready for the A.C.G.A. which is too close for comfort. We stopped off in Ohio for Amish cheeses to serve in the Hospitality Room. Must bake cookies by the dozens. Have had lots of help offered so will hope our 25th Convention will be a good one. First time in West Virginia and we will roll out the red carpet. We welcome one and all to our "West Virginia Hills".

GRACE & BYRON RINEHART
CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA

P.S. We were saddened to hear of Nancy Stremming passing away. They specialized in rose bowls and came often to Ohio auctions. Our deepest sympathy to Robert and sons of Strasburg, Illinois.

THE INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

Roland and I were fortunate to be able to attend the International Convention this year in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. We arrived on Wednesday and many had already checked in a couple of days earlier. As is the case, we began to see old friends, many new faces and lots of beautiful displays of glass both as just displays and for sale items.

In the afternoon, there was a Program on plates given by the Hitchcocks. Some rare and beautiful plates were shown and talked about as well as some more common ones that were equally as beautiful. After the Program all of the new collectors were asked to stand and tell us where they were from, their names and how they became interested in Carnival Glass. Some very interesting stories came out and it was very interesting. After that, a panel made up of John Britt, George Loescher, Donna Courts, Diane Fry and Lee Markley, were on hand to answer any questions from anyone. Here again, some interesting questions and answers were provided.

The Hospitality Room was open after the educational session, where lots of goodies were consumed.

At 8:00 P.M. an ice cream social was held in the ballroom where everyone gathered for ice cream and socializing at its greatest. A great turn out and lots of visiting took place.

Thursday morning, we took a second look at the display of compotes. Many colors, patterns and shapes that I had never seen before. Then came the viewing of the auction glass. The room was opened an hour early so everyone could take a good look at the glass and get their seats. There were approximately 165 bidding numbers out. It was a super collection of glass and as you will see by the prices, glass still brings a good price. There were some very rare pieces of glass in this auction. The few pieces that had damage were so rare they still brought a good price. I am sure the sellers were pleased with the results. Thursday evening was free and the only activity was the Hospitality Room. It was very well enjoyed as well.

Friday morning we gathered for the business meeting. In the afternoon Frank Fenton gave us one of his great programs and we always learn so much from him and so pleased he will share his knowledge with us. The clubs have been so fortunate to have him as their speaker throughout the years. Friday evening brought the banquet and the speakers, John & Lucile Britt. Many one-of-a-kind pieces were shown and here again John & Lucile are always willing to bring their glass and share with us. We certainly appreciate all of their hard work. Grace and Byron Rinehart were honored as never missing a Convention since the beginning 24 years ago. For the banquet meal we were served a great meal, Amana family style. First time for me to be served a banquet meal in this way. That saurkraut, prepared in the German fashion I would guess, was very tasty.

Saturday morning we had a sit down breakfast and soon many of us were on our way home after a wonderful weekend in Cedar Rapids. Others continued on to the American Carnival Glass Convention, as it will be held in the heart of Fenton country. A tour of how the glass is made will be a highlight of this Convention. Mr. Fenton advised they would be making red baskets at this time.

At the business meeting a wonderful couple from Australia were there. They too have a Convention in September and invited everyone to come be with them at this time. They came to the front and spoke of the country and explained where they are having the Convention and explained it very similar to the Amana Colonies in Iowa. A German settlement and very beautiful countryside. As Carl Schroeder mentioned what a thrill it would be for a group to get together and all go to Australia for one of their Conventions.

I am sure I left out many things that took place and many people who were recognized, but perhaps someone from the International Club will fill in the gaps.

Next year St. Louis will be the meeting place and we already are getting anxious and planning for this one. It will be their 25th Anniversary so lets all go and help them make this the biggest one ever.

Recently, the Clubs bank imposed a new policy on collecting funds from checks drawn on foreign banks. This policy states that the bank will collect a $7.50 fee for checks drawn on foreign banks.

The Board of Directors recommends that members outside of the United States send money orders when paying for dues or purchasing souvenirs and books. These should be payable in U. S. dollars and drawn on a U. S. bank. This will help eliminate any delays since we would have to return your check.

We appreciate your continued support and cooperation.

TAMPA BAY CARNIVAL GLASS CLUB NEWS

First of all, I would like to wish you all a Happy 4th of July on this the eve of our 214th Anniversary of the independence of our great land!

I would like to extend our warmest welcome to a new member, Miss Helen Gust of Oconomowoc, Wisconsin. We hope you will enjoy your membership and look forward to seeing you down here in the warmer climes after the snow begins to blow up that-a-way! It is also nice to welcome back Rodney and Susie Hardee of Lakeland. Glad we didn't lose you and hope you will find time to be more active in our affairs!

The June meeting of T.B.C.G.C. was held at the home of Blanche and J. J. Williams in Eustis. Two major topics were on the business agenda--One in regard to the show/sale on October 21, 1990, at the Clearwater YMCA! If you read your Newsletter, you will recall that it will be sponsored by the Clearwater Depression Glass Club with the Fenton Finders Club as well as T.B.C.G.C. participating. The show will be known as "Rags to Riches", and participants may show/sell anything collectable or antique. Table reservations are due by mid-August, and if you are interested, please get in touch with Naomi Calkins PHONE: 1-813-725-4145, who will be coordinating details with the C.D.G.C.

The second item was in regard to the July meeting. There will be NO meeting in July since about 50% of our regular attendees are planning to be at the American Carnival Glass Association Convention in Williamstown, West Virginia.

Our next meeting will be at the home of Bill and Ginger Tendl on August 19, 1990 at noon. Please arrange covered dishes prior to meeting with Ginger.

J. J. WILLIAMS

THE AIR CAPITAL CARNIVAL GLASS CLUB CONVENTION

We would like to invite you to attend our 9th Annual Convention. The dates are October 19-21, 1990. We will be having it at the same motel as in the past 8 years, 5400 W. Kellogg, Wichita, Kansas. The motel has been sold to Holiday Inn. We regret that this has caused the price of the rooms to go up but hope this will not keep you from being with us again this year. The rates are $52.00 single and $58.00 double.

For those early birds arriving on Thursday, we will be furnishing you free bus transportation to see 3 Carnival Glass collections and be served a free evening meal at one of the stops. The bus will leave the motel at 5:00 P.M. sharp and we plan to have you back to the motel by 10:00 P.M.

We ask that you pre-register on the form. This saves us a lot of time and work at the last minute.

We will have awards for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners for room displays again this year.

We have the rooms on the first and second floor blocked, but remember there are only so many rooms on the first floor so first come, first served. The motel will assign you your rooms according to the time your reservations are received so get your reservations in early.

We are honored this year to have Dean and Diane Fry of San Diego, California as our Banquet speakers. The title of their talk will be "Patterns for Perennial Pleasure". Our guest speaker for the Friday afternoon educational program will be Harold Fortney. Jim Seeck will be furnishing us with a good auction on Saturday morning.

WESTERN BUCKEYE CARNIVAL GLASS CLUB NEWS

The Western Buckeye Carnival Glass Club recently held its' spring meeting at the home of Bob and Donna Courts in Batavia, Ohio with 17 members and guests attending. Good food, conversation and beautiful glass was the order of the day. It is always a pleasure to view a premier collection with pattern and piece colors such as Bob and Donna have assembled.

Members were asked to bring a favorite piece to the meeting, an always difficult task, especially since every piece is a favorite. Larry and Mary Yung brought a very nice iridised custard Grape Frieze bowl, David and Libby Cotton served cake on a frosty white Floral and Optic footed plate. The conversation piece of the meeting was Harold Wagners' small amethyst vase, tree bark cylinder, twig handles, oak leaves and acorns at the top - maker unknown - but with many similar characteristics and color of the Millersburg Pipe Humidor.

The next Club meeting was discussed and a Carnival Glass swap meet is planned for Sunday, September 2, 1990 at the home of Norm and Barb Archer. Collectors are invited to set up a table and join the Clubs' festivities for the day.

DAVID COTTON
Secretary/Treasurer
