MARCH, 1994 REGULAR H.O.A.C.G.A. MONTHLY ME.

The March, 1994 meeting of the Heart of America Carnival Glas. take place on Sunday, March 27, 1994, at 2:00 P.M. at the Raytc Raytown, Missouri.

The February, 1994 meeting was cancelled due to the death of Glen Fortne, husband of our Bulletin Secretary.

The topic for the March 27, 1994 meeting will be Red Glass or glass with hearts in the pattern, originally scheduled for February. Hope to see you there.

ED KRAMER
SECRETARY,
H.O.A.C.G.A.

A NOTE FROM THE SECRETARY:

From all the correspondence, it seems that some people do not realize that the Notebook Section, COMPOTES 2 (small compotes) has not yet been printed. The Notebook Section for the current year is available at the April Convention.

The copy is just now going to the printer and mail orders will be distributed in early May. Copies of COMPOTES 1 (large compotes) are available now for immediate mailing.

Also another reminder. Ads go to the Bulletin Secretary, Jackie Fortney, to avoid delay.

ED KRAMER
SECRETARY,
H.O.A.C.G.A.

Tomorrow is not promised us, so take today and make the most of it.

CLAR H.O.A.C.G.A. MONTHLY MEETING

94 meeting of the Heart of America Carnival Glass Association on Sunday, February 27, 1994, at 2:00 P.M. at the Raytown City Hall, Missouri. Red glass or glass with hearts in the pattern will be the Valentine month discussion topic.

The January 23, 1994 meeting produced 39 pieces of white Carnival Glass with very few duplicates. We picked up some interesting highlights, as President Grissom led the discussion and gave us some background on the popularity of white versus the other colors available on the different patterns and shapes.

Mike Hood won the door prize, a plum toothpick whimsey. We welcomed Joe and Shirley Williams, who drove in from Des Moines, Iowa.

GENERAL NOTE FROM THE SECRETARY:

There seems to be a lot of interest in the reproduction of the Butler Brothers catalogs. So far, we have had about 50 responses.

The article seeking interest is being published in all the Club Bulletins so hopefully we'll get a lot more. Remember, we must have about 1,000 to make the project financially feasible. These responses are not orders. We will let you know via the Bulletin when we are ready for the actual orders.

Also, please send your ads for glass for sale or wanted directly to Jackie Fortney, the Bulletin Secretary (address in front of this Bulletin). When they come to me, I forward them by mail to her (as we don't live very close), and that delays them a day or two. THANK YOU!

ED KRAMER
SECRETARY,

No tranquilizer is more effective than a few kind words.

A NOTE ABOUT GLEN FORTNEY.....

We have lost a great friend of Carnival Glass. Glen Fortney passed away on February 25, 1994.

He was Secretary of the Club from 1986 to 1989 and has been a tireless worker every since. He helped Jackie with the Bulletin distribution even after he was ill. Jackie certainly deserves our thanks for keeping the Bulletin going through the 6 month period of Glen's illness.

Glen was instrumental in obtaining the rights to the Hartung Pattern Books for H.O.A.C.G.A. Through his efforts and forethought, this information has been retained for present and future Carnival collectors.

Our sympathy is extended to Jackie, sons Harold and Steve and the rest of their family.

Cards may be sent to Jackie Fortney at Post Office Box 303, Buckner, MO 64016.

ED KRAMER
SECRETARY,
H.O.A.C.G.A.

On February 25, 1994, my father, Glen Fortney, passed away after a 6 month battle with cancer. Mom, Steve and I wish to extend our deepest gratitude to all you wonderful people, both local and far away, for your concern and prayers during Dad's illness.

Dad really loved Carnival Glass. He enjoyed looking for the glass, going to sales and auctions, attending Club monthly meetings, going to Conventions, working as a Board member of H.O.A.C.G., but especially Dad loved his Carnival Glass friends. As many of you know, he could talk endlessly about glass.

Dad started collecting Carnival around 1980 and began by collecting Fenton Open Edge Baskets. Over the years he put together a really outstanding collection of this pattern. As this was Dad's first love in Carnival, I will keep them all together as a memorial to him. I also have the last piece of Carnival he purchased last year.

He will be missed and loved the rest of our lives.

CONVENTION HIGHLIGHTS:

At the 1993 Convention John & Lucile Britt were recognized for their many contributions to the Carnival Glass hobby and as part of that recognition a JOHN AND LUCILE BRITT AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN CARNIVAL GLASS was initiated. This Award is to be given to collectors who have made a substantial contribution to Carnival Glass.

The first of these Awards will be given at this years Convention. The recipient of the first Award will be FLOYD AND CECIL WHITLEY. The Whitleys' have collected Carnival for many years and have contributed greatly to the success of the Carnival Glass hobby and to most of the clubs and especially the Texas Club. Cecil has authored and published a book which identifies most of the Painted Tumbler patterns. The Whitleys' will be honored with this Award at a Luncheon on Friday, April 22.

* We are pleased to have Dean and Diane Fry as our Banquet Speakers. Dean and Diane are active in many of the Carnival clubs and have been the prime movers of the San Diego club. They are constantly in search of more information about Carnival and are always willing to share their information with other collectors. We are looking forward to their talk.

* The Seck Auction Company will be conducting this years auction. We know that he will be presenting an outstanding auction for us, with something for everyone. Jim, Vern, Jan and Susie always do a good job at their auctions.

ARCHES IN SAND TUMBLER

Unfortunately, we have not been able to find this tumbler pattern in any of the books. We suspect that it might have been made in a foreign country. Only two of these tumblers have ever been reported. Both of them came out of the Don Moore collection. The other example that we know about is in the Whitley collection. If any of you know of other tumblers in this pattern, we would be most pleased to hear about them.

After a lot of research on this pattern in vain, and since it needed a name in order for us to write about it, we have called it Arches In Sand. This name, in our opinion, fits the pattern very well. There are four arches, two large and two smaller examples that alternate around the tumbler. The background is in a stippled effect that reminds one of sand. Inside each of the four arches is a triangle shaped figure containing tiers of diamonds. A smooth 3/4 inch band circles around the top of the tumbler.

The shape of the tumbler is somewhat smaller at the base than it is at the top. The top opening is 3 inches across while the base is 2 inches in diameter. It stands 3 3/4 inches high. The underside of the base contains a 12 point star type figure. We would class the color as marigold, but it does have an amberish appearance, probably due to the heavy iridescence applied, especially towards the base. The collar base, or marie, has a true lime green color, but it will not glow under a light.

WE consider the Arches In Sand tumbler as very unusual and certainly rare. It is one that you might want to look for in your Carnival Glass hunting trips.

This is #194 in our Educational Tumbler Series. Next month we will cover a foreign made tumbler that is known as Hobstar and Shield.

HOBSTAR PICKLE CASTOR

The Hobstar pickle castor is shown in Presznick Book 4 in plate #105. It is discussed by her on page 39. She lists it in that book as Imperial #282. This pattern is now known as Hobstar or Carnival Hobstar by all collectors and authors. We notice that the picture illustrated in the Presznick Book has the same frame as that shown in the above photo.

Sherman Hand shows the Hobstar pickle castor in his book "The Collectors Encyclopedia of Carnival Glass". It is illustrated on page 249 in a somewhat different metal frame. He also shows the Concave Diamonds Castor set on page 87 of his smaller book #3. We once owned a beautiful foreign made pickle castor in what we called "Stretched Diamonds and Fans". It is shown in the H.O.A.C.G.A. Educational Series Book #1 on page 69. That very fine example is now owned by LaNell Roy of Houston, Texas. Mr. Hand reports of seeing a few of the Hobstar pickle castors in crystal. He classes the Carnival Glass examples as rare. Bill Edwards also lists this piece in his 4th edition of the "Standard Encyclopedia of Carnival Glass" book, but he does not show a photo of it.

The featured Hobstar pickle castor is 9½ inches to the top of the frame. The frame is ornate and very pretty. A fancy U shaped set of tongs hangs on the side of the castor. Each end of the tongs has a very ornate hand shape figure. We believe that you should be able to see the tongs on the right hand side of the set that is pictured in the above photo. The Carnival Glass pickle container itself is 4 inches high and 3½ inches across the top. It features three of the large hobstars evenly spaced around the container. Another large hobstar is found on the bottom of the glass container. Marigold is the only color that has ever been reported.

We consider this as a very lovely and desirable piece of Carnival Glass that is very seldom seen. One of these sets sold at the George Lucy auction at Delphia, Indiana in November of 1992 for $600.00.

This marks the 182nd entry into our Pictorial Pattern Parade. We hope that you have found it interesting.

WATERLILY AND CATTAILS TABLE SET

The Waterlily and Cattails table set is a Fenton pattern. The set is considered rare and was apparently only made in the marigold color. The glass is very heavy, and we do not consider this a refined pattern. The butter in our set has a collar base that has been ground, where or when we do not know. The sugar creamer and spooner have handles that are usually not iridized. These three pieces have collar bases that are encircled with a row of beads that were quite susceptible to damage. The finials are not iridized either.

It is not our set pictured in the H.O.A.C.G.A. Pattern Notebook, but ours has a striking resemblance--three dark marigold pieces and a creamer that is different. Our creamer is a shade lighter than the other three pieces and has good overall exterior iridescence. Ours does have somewhat the same half and half inside iridescence seen in the Notebook picture. It looks like something removed part of the inside lower half iridescence.

It took us ten years to put our set together and we had to accept some wear and bead damage. The creamer was the hardest piece to find, and we had to buy an extra spooner to get it. The set may be rare, but we found prices very low.

This is the 21st in our series on Table Sets.

Orders are now being accepted on the new book, "THE COLLECTOR'S GUIDE TO NORTHWOOD'S CARNIVAL GLASS". This long awaited volume contains information on all Northwood Carnival patterns, presented in a concise and easy to read format. Nearly 250 pieces are pictured in full color, some never before shown in any Carnival Glass book. The patterns are presented in alphabetical order, with the photo illustrations accompanying the appropriate text. There is no flipping back and forth in order to match photos with information. All known shapes for each pattern are listed in every color known for that particular shape. Information is also provided concerning which shapes and colors are rare and which ones are more easily found.

Some of the other features of the book include:

Information on the origins and production of Northwoods Aqua Opalescent and Peach Opalescent Carnival.

Carnival pattern molds that Northwood purchased from the Jefferson Glass Company.

The reasons why some Northwood Carnival patterns are found only in certain colors and not in others.

The production dates for most Northwood Carnival patterns, as well as the dates when certain colors were produced.

Sections on Advertising pieces and Decorated items.

Information on reproductions and Northwood "Fakes".

Sections on identifying un-signed Northwood Carnival by back pattern and shape.

A complete price guide for ALL Northwood Carnival, not just the items pictured.

All copies sold through the H.O.A.C.G.A. will be personally autographed by the author. Also, all copies sold through the H.O.A.C.G.A. will result in a donation to the Club treasury, so don't forget to mention H.O.A.C.G.A. when you order.

The price of the book is $24.95 plus $3.00 shipping & handling. Order your copy now, directly from the author. Send check or money order to: CARL O. BURNS, STAR ROUTE, BOX 111, RUMFORD CENTER, MAINE 04278.

This covered dish is referred to as a Covered Bon Bon or Jelly in the glass makers ads. The name implies that its principle use was to hold candies such as bon bons, or as a jelly server. Its use as a Powder Jar was not mentioned, however, we recently bought one with the original labels intact. The dish is a Fenton product in marigold.

One label tells us that it was bought in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania from the Joseph Horne Company. This company has been in business continually since the late 1800's. Regrettably the selling price has faded away. Another label states "A genuine BOUTON product". Traces of powder are still evident in the top.

On page 38 of the Berry Wiggins book, Stretch Glass, he refers to a paneled powder jar decorated with enameled flowers, that has a "Bouquet Bath Powder".

label on it. We have a Diamond Glass-Ware Co. iridescent black glass with enameled flowers in our collection. This was their "Egyptian Luster Line" introduced in December of 1921.

Whatever purpose they served, it was a very popular shape. Looking back in time it can be seen that three glass companies were busy making them in copy-cat shapes and colors. Fenton Art Glass and the Northwood Company even used the same mould number, No. 643. Diamond Glass Company was also busy making this same shape.

One can dispute that this glass is not Carnival Glass and is frequently referred to as stretch glass, as some of the iridized colors have some stretch effect on the bottoms only. The stretch effect was due to the glass being shaped after the iridize spray was applied. This bottom mould was used to make several shapes, as shown in the early ads in the Fenton and Northwood books. Made from 1921 to possibly as late as 1927 it is pressed iridized pattern glass that comes in carnival colors, as well as iridized and non-iridized opaque colors. So call it whatever you want. It's very collectible and a display of various colors is a pretty sight to see.

ROSE GARDEN

This pattern is credited to Eda Glassworks of Sweden. It has been found in blue and marigold examples in a pitcher shape (no tumblers have been found). One source of information indicates that these pitchers were used as a Communion pitcher which sat on a plateau (bowl turned upside down).

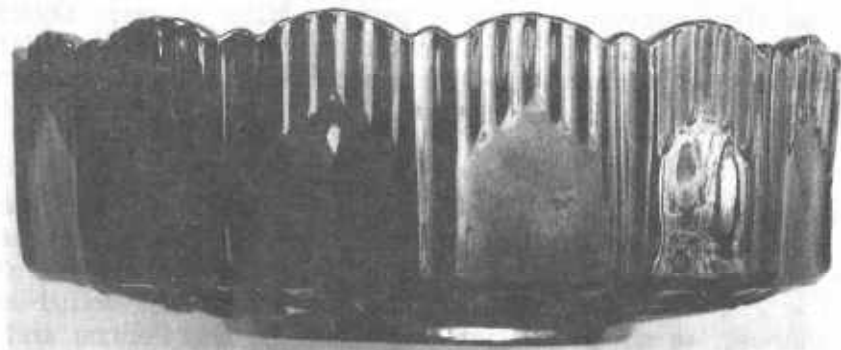

Another source relates the intended purpose of the bowl (pictured here illustrating three angles) was for taking collection money in church.

It is true that many of the inner bowl surfaces which I have seen, are scratched, perhaps from the coins which were dropped in. (This particular bowl must have been used by a wealthy congregation where only bills were placed inside, for the iridescence is flawless.)

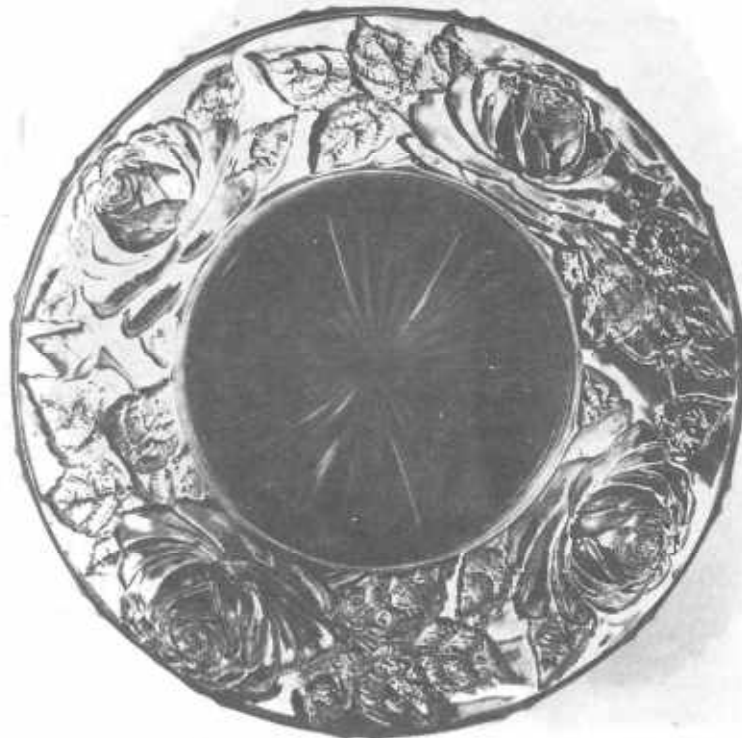

However, if this is the bowl used for the pitcher plateau, we may have rationalized the rose pattern on the outer surface. The collar base IS straight and flat, which would accomodate the flat surface of the pitcher.

I have never seen the bowl in marigold, but then, neither have I seen many in blue. The size is 8½" with a collar base of 4" in width. This should accomodate a pitcher base quite nicely. Then we also find a vase in this same pattern, which would make another nice addition to altar pieces wouldn't it?

SPECIAL CALL TO ALL FARMYARD OWNERS!

In conjunction with the Banquet Program, "A PLETHORA OF PATTERNS", we believe it would be interesting to bring together as many examples of FARMYARD as possible. For years, conjecture of as many as fifty have been discussed. Certainly, those chickens are a favored and choice pattern to own!

If YOU own one (ormore) and plan to attend the H.O.A.C.G.A. Convention in April, we'd like you to bring your FARMYARD(S) labeled and identified with your name. There will be a row of tables in front of the Program display provided for the Farmyards. (Please bring your own display holder(s). They will NOT be handled after you set them into position.

Cecil Whitley will stand at one end of the display (she is bringing three Farmyards). I will stand at the opposite end of the tables. At the conclusion of the Banquet presentation, she and I will entertain discussion and appreciate any input you other Farmyard owners care to extend. We HOPE this will be the largest and most beautiful assemblage possible. With YOUR help we, at least, will have a more accurate count of chickens in the Farmyard. Can we DEPEND ON YOU? MANY THANKS.

SPIRAL DANCE IRIDIZED HATPIN

Spiral Dance is one and five-eighth inches in diameter, rounded dome jet base glass and has the cone shank. The design starts at the center with fourteen faceted triangles. From this center, faceted rectangles of varying sizes spiral and descend to the rim. In between these three spiraling patterns more spirals start and continue throughout the piece. The spiral pattern is reminiscent of dancers using long narrow lengths of cloth and swirling them in their playful routine. The bright blue iridescence has a shimmering effect when the light is reflected off the spirals. The glass is old glass, probably Bohemian, and until now, undocumented in Carnival literature.

A similar design, Facets and Bands, can be seen in book 2, A Carnival of Iridescent Luster Buttons, by R. M. Clark. It is not as large (1 1/16 inch), has smaller and more center triangles and does not have the cone shank.

Spiral Dance is a different and noteworthy large faceted iridized hatpin.

Dear Members:

Spring is just around the corner and so are our plans for 2 quality Carnival Glass Auctions held by Cooper and Albrecht Auction Service in Michigan. We will be using a new location for both of these Auctions - the Comfort Inn on M-59 next to the Oakland Pontiac Airport (Waterford/Pontiac, Michigan). This location will be approximately 45 miles closer for those traveling from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois and being a fairly new accomodation, we feel it will be a welcome change for all.

The dates for these Auctions are: Friday, May 13 and Saturday, May 14 and Friday, June 3 and Saturday, June 4.

We will no longer be charging the additional 5% handling charge on absentee bids nor the $100.00 minimum bid per item in hopes of increasing our absentee bids substantially.

We already have three collections in the offering with many Reds and Rarities included, but we can always use some additional quality/highpowered glass. If interested in receiving a catalog or consigning to the upcoming Auctions or future Auctions, please contact Gary Cooper at 1-810-686-2158 early morning or after 10:00 P.M. or Herb or Dave Albrecht at 1-517-823-8835, Monday through Friday from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

DAVE ALBRECHT

The Keystone Carnival Glass Club announces their 1994 dates for:

13TH ANNUAL OLD CARNIVAL GLASS SHOW & SALE
MARCH 12, 1994 FROM 9:00 A.M. TO 3:00 P.M.
HOLIDAY INN - NORTH LANCASTER, PENNSYLVANIA

KEYSTONE CARNIVAL GLASS CLUB CONVENTION
MAY 26-29, 1994
DAYS INN, BROOKVILLE, PENNSYLVANIA (EXIT 13 OFF I-80)

For further information, please contact: Nancy C. Williams, 2009 Cullum Drive, Reading, Pennsylvania 19601. PHONE: 1-610-374-9033.

PLEASE TAKE NOTE: WE NEED YOUR RESPONSE

As a result of our quest for Butler Brothers Catalogs last fall, we now have an accumulation of some 300 pages illustrating Carnival Glass patterns and their original selling prices.

There are 39 issues of Butler Brothers, 2 issues of John M. Smyth Co., 1 issue of Baltimore Bargain House, and 1 issue of Charles Broadway Rouss, Inc. These were all wholesale distributors. The years involved within these catalogs extend from 1905-1931 with no duplication of issue dates.

Not every issue illustrates the same assortment of glass and certainly not every pattern we know in Carnival is represented. They DO represent verification of manufacture AND the continuity of many patterns over many years of sale.

Before printing this publication, the size of which is: 11" X 14" with a price range of $20.00 to $22.00, H.O.A.C.G.A. would like an idea of the desirability of such re-production of the actual pages of these historical old catalogs. To bring the re-sale price into the reach of collectors, 1,000 books will need to be the initial printing.

If you are interested in purchasing such a book, please get in touch with ED KRAMER, SECRETARY OF H.O.A.C.G.A., 4305 W. 78TH STREET, PRAIRIE VILLAGE, KANSAS 66208, 1-913-642-3587.

Only with this response can we assess the cost effectiveness of continuing with this proposed project. PLEASE LET US HEAR FROM YOU WHILE THIS ANNOUNCEMENT IS FOREMOST IN YOUR THOUGHTS.

Dear Ed:

In reponse to the article on the Butler Bros. catalogs publication, I would indeed be very interested in the publication. I also would be willing to pay twice the quoted price range for the publication.

I also feel this book could be the most important personal research book on Carnival Glass published in a long time.

Just try and go to a library and obtain the information that would be available in such a volume.

Edward C. Stalder
San Diego, CA.

Dear Mr. Kramer:

I read about your catalog in the Lincoln-Land newsletter. I want one!

Please send me ordering information and I will send you a check A.S.A.P. Can't wait to get one. Thanks for taking the time to do this. I am a new collector and any information I can get is always a great help.

Sharon Capol
Franklin, WI.

Hello Ed:

Please count us in on the re-production of the old catalogs as featured in the January, 1994 Bulletin. We will also wish to order Carl O. Burns book, "The Collectors Guide to Northwood's Carnival Glass", as members of Heart of America Carnival Glass Association, when it is ready.

We would like to thank all of you who make the monthly H.O.A.C.G.A. Bulletin enjoyable and very informative; just wish we were closer so we could attend the meetings and especially the Conventions.

Omar & Virginia Bresland
Anchorage, AK.

Dear Ed:

I would be one of those people interested in buying the Butler Brothers catalogs.

I have been wanting to get them every since 1965. Do the job, and I will buy one.

Bob Neumann
Centralia, WA.

HAVE A GREAT DAY!

TEXAS CARNIVAL GLASS CONVENTION (SECOND TURNOUT)

This year we left Kansas in much nicer weather than last year. It was in the 60's this time. Last year ice, snow, wind and terrible cold as we left.

We arrived about noon on Thursday and as we came in the hotel could see some familiar faces of the earlier arrivals. The weather there was just beautiful. The green grass, flowers and trees leafed out sure made it a nice change from where we had just came.

We all journeyed to Luby's for supper and believe there were about 81 in the group. We came back to the hotel where we played Texas bingo again this year. The cards had Carnival Glass patterns instead of numbers and we used M & M's to place on the patterns called out. If you ate the M & M's no more bingo for you so we were careful not to eat too many until the games were over. Then came the famous Blue Bell ice cream where we made our own sundae, compliments of Cecil and Floyd Whitley. They were delicious. Lots of rooms full of glass to look at the rest of the evening and do some more Carnival Glass talking.

Friday was sort of a free day until 4:00 P.M. when we enjoyed a talk by Roy Heiger. Roy gave an excellent presentation on Drapery Vases, Parlor Panels pieces and some more interesting pieces from his collection. The Midnight Auction was a real good part of the Convention. Lots of glass and some real good glass changed hands before it was over. We also got to view the Auction glass that evening as well.

Saturday the auction began at 9:30 A.M. sharp and bidding was brisk. Lots of nice pieces in the auction. The Texas club furnished food during the auction and about noon brought in all the fixings for Tacos. Jim stopped the auction so we could enjoy the food. The auction was over about 2:30 P.M. There was about 100 bidding numbers out but a large crowd in the room. At 6:00 P.M. we lined up to go into the banquet room. After the meal we enjoyed remarks and thank you's from the outgoing President, Richard Cinclair. I believe there were about 114 at the banquet. Floyd and Bob presented Richard with some gifts for his fine job over the past 3 years and I am sure he will remember the gifts for some time. Floyd and Bob were in charge of the tickets for the raffle bowl and at that time had the drawing. The lucky winner was thrilled to have won it. An Afghan, donated to the club by Roland Kuhn, was auctioned off by Jim Seeck. I am sure the club was pleased with the price and helped out the treasury. Floyd Whitley bought it and then presented it to the Thistlewoods of England. I think they were very pleased with the item. Richard presented the new President, Roy Heiger to the group. He continued on with the rest of the program. Roy then introduced the banquet speaker, Smokey Cloud. We all enjoyed his talk on various pieces from his collection and some of his favorites from his collection.

I think this was probably one of the largest groups they have had. Next year they expect you all to come back and enjoy the Texas hospitality. If you have never gone to the Texas convention you are missing a very good one.

Coming home we ran into one of those Texas sprinkles. From Corsicana to almost Dallas, you could hardly see to drive. The rain came down in sheets and it rained so hard at times there was several inches of water on the roadway. Everyone had to slow down to about 30 miles per hour and you know for a Texan to have to go that slow was something. As usual just about Pauls Valley, Oklahoma we began to see the temperature start to go down. It was 70 there and when we got back to Wichita it was 30, so quite a change.

This convention is one that is always on the top of our list to attend so be thinking about coming in 1995.

One Last Complaint

A LITTLE old lady died and went to heaven. Five years later her husband died. When he arrived in heaven, his wife couldn't wait to show him around, pointing out what a beautiful place it was.
"Yes, it certainly is," said her husband, "and if it hadn't been for that blamed fiber diet of yours, I could have been enjoying it years ago!"

THE SEARCH FOR MARCH

CARNIVAL GLASS FOR SALE

PART 1: I just got home after a two week trip, selling at two antique shows in California (2,000 miles later). One of the great advantages in being a dealer is that once in a while I get the opportunity to go in a home to buy things. In February, I got a house call for a Carnival Glass collection. Seeing how I usually have out 60-100 pieces of old Carnival Glass for sale, I also got the opportunity to buy some glass at times.

This lady told me she had about 50 pieces of Carnival Glass to sell. As usual, she had a lot of very common $15.00 to $25.00 pieces (for someone not in a Carnival Club) and she wanted $50.00 a piece across the board. After previewing most pieces, there was one piece sitting in her china cabinet sandwiched between a few other pieces. I could see opal tips on the only plate she had. As I looked closer it was a beautiful peach opal dark marigold Strawberry plate with opal edges. I didn't want to be too obvious and later told her that I would offer her a lot of money for one piece. She wanted to know which piece and I would not tell her. I ended up making a fair deal for the whole collection and then I told her about her beautiful plate. P.S. Hey Tom, I also got a green Concord I.C.S. bowl too!

PART 2: At my second antique show up north, I ran into a dealer unpacking some Carnival Glass. He told me he had some more put away in another box. When I went back he started unpacking them and I grabbed them as soon as they were unwrapped. The final total: Marigold Peacocks bowl, Amethyst Peacocks bowl, Marigold Fenton Peacock & Urn I.C.S. bowl, 2 Fenton Peacock & Urn bowls, Amethyst Fenton Peacock & Urn bowl, Green Fenton Peacock & Urn bowl, Electric blue Good Luck, Marigold Good Luck, Electric blue Fruits & Flowers footed compote, Blue Horse Medallion 3 footed bowl, Purple Cobblestone bowl and a marigold Brooklyn Bridge 10 ruffled bowl. What a find and with really good iridescence.

PART 3: On the trip down towards San Diego County, my girlfriend EVE and I stopped into a lot of antique shops as usual. After going through this one antique mall, in the last booth, in the window sitting by itself was a single piece of Carnival Glass. An Orange Tree breakfast creamer in peach opal. The handle does have a separation in it, but what a rarity and what a way to end a successful trip. P.S. I sold about 35 pieces of Carnival at the 2 shows.
