FENTON'S #400 VASE

By Alan and Lorraine Pickup

Sherman Hand's 1978 book "The Collectors Encyclopedia of Carnival Glass" calls this vase a "Bud Vase Whimsey" (Sherman Hand's spelling) and comments: "The collector who likes the different and unusual things would surely enjoy this little bud vase. Just what the glass worker had in mind when he shaped this Whimsey, I really don't know, whatever it was I love it." Our first encounter with these vases was at the 23rd Annual International Carnival Glass convention at Elkhart, Indiana back in July of 1989.

This convention like most conventions had a variety of wonderful glass displays, but one display that left a lasting impression on us was Dr. Larry Keig's exhibit of Fenton #400 vases. These vases, although quite simple in design, have something of an elegant air about them. Larry's display with its assortment of shapes and colors was the trigger that motivated us to add some 19 of these vases to our glass collection today.

This vase is shown in two different shapes in a 1921 advertisement of Fenton Art Glass shown in William Heacock's book, "Fenton Glass, The First Twenty-Five Years". It is usually found in four shapes: ruffled, square, Jack in the Pulpit and two sides up. Some collectors refer to this vase as "not carnival glass" but stretch glass, and indeed there are some stretch glass versions. But after some 13 years of looking we have only been able to purchase three vases in stretch and interestingly all three are the Two Sides Up shape. The usual glass colors found are Grecian gold, Persian pearl, Celeste blue, Cobalt blue, Topaz, and Florentine green. But it is also known in red, although very rare, and last year a JIP marigold over aqua vase was sold at a Jim Seeck auction in Iowa for a hefty $350. Some at the sale felt it was marigold over celeste blue. Either way, when you come right down to it, either marigold iridescence over aqua or over celeste blue, it is surely a very rare vase.

The ruffled white JIP vase shown here was recently purchased by us on Ebay out of Arkansas with 12 bids from 8 different determined bidders, and this is the first vase we have seen in this ruffled jack in the pulpit shape. We would like to think of this vase as a "whimsy" Jack in the pulpit Bud Vase Whimsey.

These vases are pictured in Edwards/Carwile book under "Whimsy Pieces" and listed additionally in a wisteria glass base color. The wisteria vase has so far escaped us, but we will keep looking. Flash: We have just received by E-mail a message with pictures from another prominent Iowa collector of what would best be described as a Sapphire blue vase in the two sides up shape. Does anybody else have additional colors that are not mentioned here?

FERN BRAND CHOCOLATES

By Dean & Diane Fry

This is one of the more available patterns among the 6" Advertising pieces, although a nice flat, colorful plate will usually command a price of $1000. The only other shape is a handgrip style plate.

You'll notice that instead of the usual two Mums sprigs, this design has a very appropriate fern frond over top of the writing...the floral arrangement differs from all other Northwood Advertising pieces, as well.

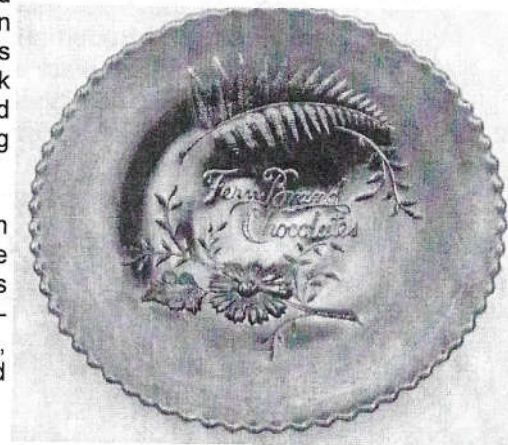

Five examples of this piece are on record in auction results for 2001 - certainly not many when compared to some other patterns which sell in the dozens every year!

Ray and Verda Asbury of Burlington, IA; home of Fern Brands Chocolates performed research even before John Resnik. Their findings indicate that Gardner and Gould was the parent company. Established in June, 1900, at the corner of Elm and Third Streets, the company produced a wide range of confections, until their demise in July, 1955.

As with other pieces in this category, Northwood used their Basketweave pattern for the exterior.

If your interest extends to media products, you may want to be alert to wooden and cardboard boxes bearing the Fern Brand Chocolates advertising. John Resnik mentions that he found some examples during his research.

This lovely plate has been in our collection since July of 1998. It was purchased from a long-time San Diego friend, Dennis Sutton. He found it in a La Jolla, CA mall.

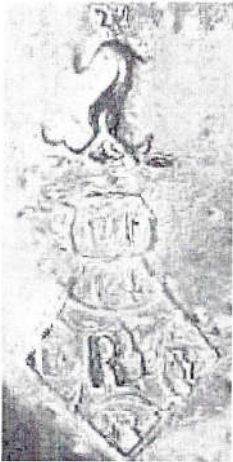

Sowerby's Diving Dolphins

*The Twelfth in a series on non USA Carnival
By Glen and Stephen Thistlewood*

In the ninth article we wrote in this series, we took a look at the beautiful Carnival Glass made by Sowerby in the north east of England. In this, our twelfth article, we're going back to the north east of England - to Tyneside - to look at that splendid pattern, "Diving Dolphins."

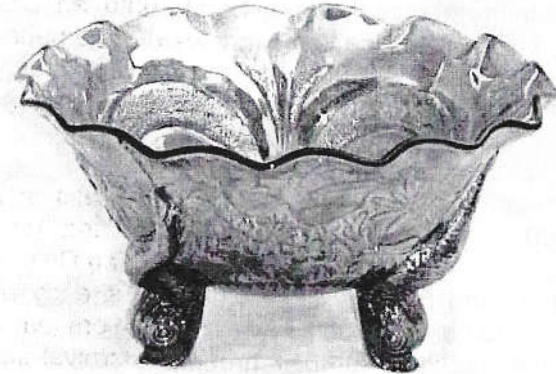

On many of their older pieces of glass, Sowerby used the peacock head trademark that we described in our previous article on the company. The photograph will show you what that trademark actually looks like impressed onto an example of crystal glass from the late 1800s. You can see the peacock head at the top and below it, the diamond registration lozenge. When it's found on Carnival, however, only the peacock head was used.

When Sowerby began to produce Carnival Glass in the early 1920s, they brought some of their old moulds into use. One of the most famous re-used moulds was the "Diving Dolphins". First produced back in the 1880s, Sowerby had already made this splendid item in various colors and types of glass. On the older, non-Carnival items, their peacock head trademark can often be seen in the center of the plain interior. When they re-issued "Diving Dolphins" in Carnival, they replaced the plain interior with a plagiarized version of Imperial's "Scroll Embossed" design. This led many early Carnival collectors back in the 1960s, to assume the "Diving Dolphins" was actually an Imperial item! In replacing the plain interior with the patterned one, they also removed the trademark, thus no Carnival examples are known bearing the peacocks head.

As you can see by the photograph, the "Diving Dolphins" bowls stand on three feet, each styled to form the shape of a dolphin's head. Their bodies curve up and round, onto the main part of the bowl. Around the sides of the bowl are stylized flowers and leaves, the combination of elements forming a most attractive, overall design. Note that this pattern is cameo (raised up off the surface of the glass). The three footed bowl shape was the only one made in the pattern but variations in finish are known. There are smoothly flared bowls, as well as rare square and tricorn bowls and rose bowls, all shaped from the same mould. The known colors are marigold, amethyst and rare aqua/teal blue shades. A deeper shade of amber-like marigold is also known.

CORRESPONDENCE

I'm sure you've had your share of grief concerning the lateness of the bulletins in the last few months. So, I wanted to forward some good news to you for a change. This month's bulletin arrived in Boston today (Nov. 15) Hurray! So, your efforts have come to fruition, at least for this month. So, thank you for your persistence. The US mail finally delivered for us. Take care, Dan West

HELLO FROM IOWA

By Vicki Gearheart

Well another great auction to add to the list of many we have been fortunate enough to attend. It was the Great Lakes Carnival Glass Club "Glass Bash Auction".

This is a friendly club with lots of pretty room displays and a very nice hotel for their convention. The auction glass was very nice also. Some really nice Aqua Opal items if you like the pastels.

This auction was in November in Lansing Michigan at the Best Western Midway Hotel and the auction was conducted by the Burns Auction Service. Around 250 pieces were sold.

I am sending some photos that may be placed with the article so you can see a few of the nice items that were available that day.

The rare Whimsey Tornado Marigold Vase with an internal bruise sold to a New York Mailbidder for $2250. The Millersburg Hobnail Blue pitcher with wonderful blue iridescence and a tiny chip on the spout brought $4000. The Ice Green Opal Rose Show plate brought $7500.

The Multi-Fruits and Flowers Pitcher brought $16,000 (I think it was either $16,000 or $19,000 anyway needless to say it's not at our house) the matching tumbler brought $1000. The Celeste Blue Orange Tree Bowl brought $6000.

There were some of the nicest poppy show items you could of asked to see. The Marigold Poppy Show Plate (pumpkin, the best I have ever seen) sold for $2800. The Blue Poppy Show plate sold for $3000. The Green Poppy Show bowl with a tiny chip sold for $2400.

An Aqua Opal Peacocks bowl (the best I have seen) sold for $1900. An AO Good Luck Bowl sold for $2850. An AO Grape and Cable PCE Bowl sold for $2500. AO Three Fruits Plates one sold for $7500 and the other for $5500. An AO Fenton Vintage sold for $1200.

One of my favorite items was the Smoke Chrysanthemum Chop Plate with stretch iridescence, really neat and sold for $2500. The Farmyard nicely ruffled and laid out so you could see the pattern really good but had epoxy so sold for only $1800.

Marigold over Moonstone Orange Tree bowl was a knockout with the caramel colored iridescence a real pretty piece that sold for $1000 and an Electric Blue Peacocks PCE bowl sold for $1500.

Special Note to All: Jack Adams will be having for surgery on Jan. 8th. Please say a little prayer for him and his family for a successful surgery and quick recovery. We all look forward to seeing him at the conventions.

Request for Information Dugan/Diamond Beaded Baskets

By Dr. Larry Keig

I am researching the Dugan and Diamond Beaded Baskets, attempting to learn which colors were produced in which of two handle configurations and in which of two top shapes. I ask that those of you who own one or more of these baskets to let me know what you have. I would appreciate your time and effort in clipping, photocopying, or copying and pasting the form below, completing it, and then either sending or e-mailing it to me. Or simply tell me what you have if you don't want to bother filling out the form.

Some of the Beaded Baskets were produced with straight-up handles and others with flared-out handles. Some were made with round tops and others with oblong tops (top of basket dimensions, not from edge to edge of the two handles). I know that these baskets come in the following colors or have been reported in those colors. They may also come in colors of which I am unaware. (For example, my marigold basket has the straight-up handles, and it has the oblong top, measuring just over 4 inches across from edge to edge underneath the handles and about 5 inches the other way. So if I were completing the form below, I'd write "oblong" in the space across from "marigold" and below "straight-up handles.")

Beaded Baskets: Colors, Handle Configurations, and Top Shapes (Round or Oblong)

	Flared-Out Handles	Straight-Up Handles
Marigold
Amethyst
Purple
Oxblood (Black Amy)
Cobalt Blue
White
Aqua
Sapphire
Smokey Lavender
Lime Green w/ Mari overlay
Pink w/ Mari overlay

I am not certain if the basket was made in purple as well as in amethyst and oxblood (black amethyst) or in aqua as well as sapphire. I have never seen one in what I consider a true purple. I've seen the aqua listed in auction reports and in on-line auctions. In fact, I bought one once through an absentee bid, but it turned out to be sapphire. Thus, I don't actually know if a true aqua – a light blue with a slight hint of green – base color – as opposed to an aqua iridescence – exists. The sapphire has a brilliant blue, though not a cobalt, base color, identified by looking through the side at the narrowest portion near its base.

You may send information to Dr. Larry Keig, 1614 Merner Ave., Cedar Falls, Iowa 50613 or e-mail it, with Beaded Baskets in the subject line, to larry.keig@cfu.net. Thanks for your help.

January 2003 Meeting of HOACGA

By Ed Kramer

The next regular meeting of HOACGA will be held on Sunday, January 26, 2003 at 2:00 pm at the Prairie Village Community Center, 7700 Mission Road, Prairie Village, Kansas.

We will discuss white carnival glass. Bring your winter white. We hope for good weather and no white in the forecast.

THERE WILL BE NO DECEMBER MEETING. A party will be held at Bob Grissom's home on December 7, 2002.

The November 24th meeting was attended by 9 members.

The Balls had out of town guests to take to the airport so Cliff dropped off the Treasurer's Report showing an ending balance of $17,794.89. There have been some ongoing discussions with the bank about what are considered by Cliff to be excessive bank charges.

It was noted that a new Roster of the club is planned for next year. Please be sure your information is updated including e-mail address.

The rates for the 2004 and 2005 conventions have been set at $104/ nite with the Embassy Suites Hotel. The 2003 Convention speakers are set with Tommy Whitley as the banquet speaker and Stacey Wills as a seminar speaker. Bart Dooley's collection will be auctioned by Jim Seeck, and there will be a display and seminar on glass with beautiful iridescence. Bob Grissom is coordinating the display.

There will be a traditional Mickey Reichel auction January 4th, 2003 in Boonville and HOACGA will host a happy hour gathering Friday nite. After a break for apple cider, coffee cake and homemade cookies from VP Don Lacock, everyone who brought bird pattern glass discussed it. There were 22 pieces. Charlie and Eleanor Mochel brought the red panther footed sauce dish they bought at an auction this past week at the brand new Overland Park, Kansas Convention Center. Charlie Mochel won the door prize, a whimsied white souvenir loving cup with silver painting.

HEART OF AMERICA CARNIVAL GLASS
ASSOCIATION
BOARD MEETING, NOVEMBER 21, 2002

The HOACGA Board held their monthly meeting in Lawrence, Kansas on November 21, 2002 Present were President Grissom, Vice President Lacock, Secretary McMorris, and Editor Mochel.

Timely delivery of the HOACGA Newsletter by the post office and the requirements to have this mailing handled were again discussed at some length. Eleanor and Bob have worked diligently with the post office officials to learn how best to mail the newsletter at the lower postage rate and the November newsletter did get delivered in a reasonable time.

Eleanor will be sending the newsletter to the printer before the 1st of each month (about five days earlier than in the past) in order to have it ready for mailing and timely delivery and has posted a notice in the bulletin about this change.

A hospitality room sponsored by HOACGA will again be open on Friday, January 3, 2003 at the Days Inn Motel, Boonville, Missouri for the Reichel New Years Boonville Auction on January 4, 2003. All members are invited to drop by.

Treasurer Cliff Ball was unable to attend but reported that all bills are paid.

Future convention dates - April 24-27, 2003; April 22-25, 2004; and April 21-24, 2005. Location will be at the Embassy Suites, Kansas City, Missouri (close to KCI).

Various phases of the 2003 Convention were discussed. Many hours of work go into putting together a convention and making contacts so the Board is kept up to date on the progress. Bob has been in contact with Frank Fenton regarding the 2003 souvenir and will be working on getting together the Iridescence Display. Raffle information will be announced in the January newsletter.

The annual Christmas party is scheduled for December 7 at Bob Grissom's home.

Ann reported members are sending in changes in their information for the new roster. Several members have ordered video tapes and Ed Kramer is handling those mailings.

Adjournment.
Respectfully submitted,
Ann McMorris, Secretary

2002 HOACGA NOTEBOOK INSERT

Candlesticks – 1st Section

By Bob Grissom

You may not have many candlesticks in your collections, but what is your knowledge of the ones you have? Do you know the difference between a Northwood "Colonial," a Fenton "Florentine," or a Vineland "Colonial?"

The HOACGA Notebook section for 2002 will be the first of two sections identifying Candlesticks. Several collectors have candlesticks in their collection, but this is an area of Carnival glass collecting where information is not readily found. This section of the notebook is an attempt to compile them in one place, present as much information as possible, and to show them with a color photograph. Most of these are described in other publications, but you will need several reference books to be able to find them.

Much time has been spent, not only by me, but several other collectors, trying to identify the various pieces. Information such as this is only possible with the help of many members who have supplied photographs and a listing of their candlesticks.

This first section is now available. If you wish to order, please use the order form below:

I found the November Newsletter very interesting. Besides the articles on Carnival Glass, there were many human interest stories about the people we get to know through our quest for the glass we all love. I share the Newsletter with my son and daughter-in-law each month.

Thank you for all your hard work.

I'm sorry I haven't emailed sooner. Just wanted to say my bulletin arrived on the 15th of this month. Thank you for whatever you did and thanks again for all the work you put into the bulletin each month. It's the best!

SPECIAL DISPLAY 2003 HOACGA CONVENTION

By Bob Grissom

We have all heard the term "Iridescence is the Essence" - a special display featuring pieces with "BEAUTIFUL IRIDESCENCE" is being planned for the 2003 HOACGA convention. John Muehlbauer will be the speaker for the program and describe all of the "BEAUTIFUL IRIDESCENCE".

At one of our local meetings we asked the members to bring pieces with beautiful iridescence, it was very interesting and educational. We believe this will be a very educational program and give each of us a little better understanding of iridescence.

We have the subject for the display and the expert to tell us about iridescence, now your help is needed. I know that each of us have pieces with beautiful iridescence. Would you select about 5 pieces from your collection that you would be willing to bring for this special educational program. This is not a about rarities, patterns, special colors, or shapes, it is about pieces with "BEAUTIFUL IRIDESCENCE".

I would appreciate it if you will select some pieces from your collection and then send me a list. Please identify them by pattern, color, and shape, i.e. bowl, plate, compote, etc. I need the list in order to make an identification tag for each piece.

A prize of $100.00 will be given to the owner of the piece with the best "BEAUTIFUL IRIDESCENCE". The members in attendance will be given the opportunity to vote to determine the piece with the most "BEAUTIFUL IRIDESCENCE".

THIS IS A PROGRAM THAT EVERYONE CAN BE A PART OF.

CORRESPONDENCE

My wife, Viola, and I were particularly attracted to the article in the November issue of the HOACGA Bulletin entitled "Imperial's Cape Cod" by Alan and Lorraine Pickup.

One day in 1999, we were in attendance at a small estate auction sale in Perry, IA. They had one of these Cape Cod cruets which we were able to purchase for $25. Though we have been avid carnival glass collectors for some 40 years, we had never seen one before.

Our cruet is exactly like the one pictured in the bulletin article and is 5" tall including the stopper. It has an unusually attractive marigold iridescence. The neck and the stopper have been ground to fit perfectly. The end of the stopper is also ground so as to leave a very narrow edge that is iridized, thus proving that the grinding was done after the piece was iridized. I have carefully examined the bottom of the cruet and I find no label of any kind inscribed upon it.

I wish that we could offer more enlightening information about this piece, but we have always been puzzled by it. The only reference we can find to it in our library is on Page 24 of David Doty's book and that is not very informative.

LOOKING BACK

By Charles Mochel

Most everyone that has been in Carnival Glass for any period of time has heard of the fabulous Ray Wishard Auction. It was conducted on March 10, 11, 12 of 1977 in Louisville, KY. The Auction brochure had 1,214 listed items and there were many more unlisted items.

What most new collectors have not heard about though is Ray Wishard's first auction with rare pieces put in the Auction by John Roller. John had gotten these from Henry Taylor. Included in this was an I.G. Master Grape & Cable Punch Bowl, the only one known and had never been auctioned again.

Following is a copy of the Woody Auction Brochure for the above auction. There were no colored pictures and no numbered listing. We were given this Brochure by John & Lucille Britt on their way home from the auction. Please observe the notes by many of the pieces, such as condition of the piece, who purchased it and the price. This was how the early carnival auction attendees kept the record of history being made.

CARNIVAL GLASS AUCTION
March 29, 1974 Columbus, Ohio

Next month, we will have the sale bill from Mr. Wishard's second auction.

CARNIVAL GLASS AUCTION

Friday, March 29, 1974

6:00 P.M.

Holiday Inn East
4801 E. Broad

(Hwy. 16 Exit Hamilton Rd. N.)

Columbus, Ohio

Selling items from the Raymond Wishard Collection and rarities purchased by John Roller from the Henry Taylor Collection.

This is a really outstanding assortment of carnival glass. There are several "one of a kind" items included, as well as other scarce and highly desirable pieces. All the rarities are by no means listed under the "Rare" category. We are sure most collectors are aware of which patterns and colors are difficult to obtain, so we have placed quite a few of the rare items in their proper categories. Just for an example—look under "Pitchers", "Tumblers", "Plates", "N Grape", etc., and we are sure you will agree that many of those items could be correctly listed as "Rare".

The glass will be on display beginning at noon Friday. At 4:30 p.m., a buffet will be available.

There is no admission charge at the auction. Register at the door for your buying number.

Terms: Cash or check with proper identification.

Seeck Auctions is pleased to be selling the Barton Dooley Collection of Carnival Glass at the 2003 HOACGA Convention in Kansas City

Barton and his late wife Sue collected Carnival Glass for many years. It is easy to remember the fabulous displays Sue and Barton would set up at conventions. Barton still continues to collect and is on the hunt for items he has never owned before.

One item that will be on the auction is the Millersburg Cleveland Memorial Ashtray in amethyst. This is a very rare advertising piece that is available in amethyst as well as marigold. The iridescence is fantastic on this piece as well as the mold work. A fine piece for the advertising collector, Millersburg collector or anyone!

Watch the bulletins for upcoming featured auction items.

Happy Holidays!

INFORMATION FOR NEW ROSTER

By Eleanor Mochel

The HOACGA Board is contemplating having a new Roster printed shortly after the first of the year.

Would you please check your bulletin address label and make certain it is correct and also the telephone number and email address that we have for you.

You can email the new information to Ann McMorris or use the membership form in the bulletin and write corrected information in the appropriate spaces. Please mark on the form that it is for roster information and also send it to Ann McMorris, Secretary.

The roster can only be as accurate as our members cooperate in getting the correct information to us. If you do not want to be in the roster, please notify the Secretary of that immediately.

Thanks for your help!

We celebrated our 21st Anniversary on October 24-26, 2003. There were quite a few early arrivals on Wed., the 23rd. Everyone was anxious to set up their glass for sale and room displays of Carnival Glass colors.

This year we had a lot of collectors for the first time. There is always so much knowledge to share with new collectors. It's exciting to see their reactions to the answers to their questions.

The Hospitality Room was open at various times all three days with delicious treats. Lee Stonebraker and his wife Shirley were in charge and as always did a super job. We thank all of you who brought goodies and helped with the serving.

We also thank Burns Auction for providing us with the Joseph and Anna Benner collection and other consigners for our auction. As always, there was some beautiful glass at the auction.

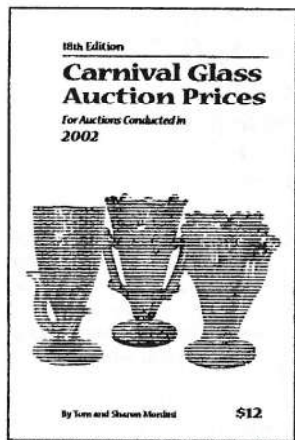

Our educational program was outstanding! Thanks to Rich Brazel and other collectors for presenting a beautiful display of Ice Green Carnival.

The Room Display awards were given out at the Banquet. First Prize - Casey Rich; Second Prize - Jorge Perri - Jorge Duhalde; Third Prize - Harry & Carol Meads. We thank everyone who brought display of Carnival Glass.

The Banquet Buffet was indeed a celebration of good food. Everyone seemed to enjoy the variety of food the Venice Inn provided for us. Following the Banquet was our entertainment with the White Elephant Sale hosted by Bill & Billy Richards. As usual, it was a fun time for everyone. We thank Bill & Billy for their help and to everyone who donated items.

We hope everyone had a good time and look forward to seeing more collectors and room displays next year. Plans for the 2003 Jamboree have not been finalized. Look in future club newsletters for the location and dates.
