Imperial's Smooth Rays Plate

By Alan and Lorraine Pickup

Looking for something different to write about tonight, we decided to pick on this Imperial Smooth Rays nine inch, wildly iridescent smoke plate. This article will be about a $25 plate that gets little notice from carnival glass collectors but still has an interesting background or should we say the marie (back-ground) impression.

It seems that most of the glass manufacturers made their version of Smooth Rays in different shapes including these plates, but little attention is paid to them. Maybe the reason for this indifference is that collectors without a firm idea of who made the plate seem to attach little importance to them. So let's start by pointing out how easy it is to come to a decision - if the plate you have was made by the Imperial Glass Company.

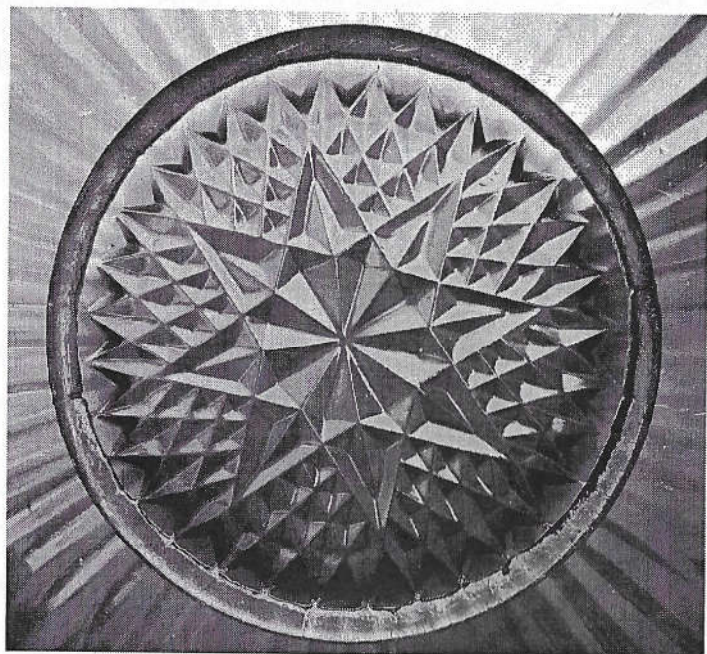

Pictured here are three of our twenty-seven Imperial plates, a purple Scroll Embossed, a pastel marigold Shell and our smoke Smooth Rays. All three were obviously made from the same basic plate mould with only the plunger mould changed in the pressing. The reverse mould is without a pattern, with only two seam lines from a two-part mould and the same marie impression.

Shell or Shell and Sand plates are found in smoke along with the Smooth Rays. We have a Shell and Sand plate that is green, but has anyone seen a Smooth Rays nine-inch plate in green? Marigold and pastel marigolds are also found in both plates. And we have had both marigold and green Scroll Embossed plates. So then we have to ask if Imperial's purple Smooth Rays plates exist. Wow! Wouldn't that be a good find?

Concave Diamonds

By Barb Chamberlain

Concave Diamonds, a Northwood pattern, is collected by both carnival and stretch glass collectors. This was made in the Satin Sheen (or Rainbow and Cobweb) collection in the twenties, just as the Barbella pattern about which I wrote in an earlier HOACGA bulletin.

This pattern can be found in a water set, a tumble-up set featuring a bedside pitcher with a tumbler made to be inverted inside the collar of the pitcher, a vase, either ruffled or plain, and a rare marigold pickle castor. With the exception of the pickle castor, the normal colors are Celeste blue (called Venetian blue, when produced), vaseline (called topaz), and olive (called russet).

Probably the most commonly found item in this pattern is the water set, which when complete features a covered tankard pitcher with flared tumblers and coasters. These aren't sold too often, but when sold, it's usually found in Celeste blue. A cracked olive pitcher was reported sold in the 2002 Mordini guide, and Dave Doty reported a vaseline water set with no lid or coasters that sold for $1300. Tumble-up sets and vases were found in all three colors - celeste, vaseline, and russet. Edwards/Carwile report an opaque jade blue tumble-up.

As you can see in the photos, there is a distinct difference between the water set tumbler and the tumble-up tumblers. The water set tumbler is tall and flares at the top. The tumble-up tumbler is shorter and straight, with a flaring base to allow it to set upside down inside the pitcher's neck.

The quilting pattern is distinctively concave on both tumblers, but appears interior on the two different pitchers and the vase. The vase appears to have been shaped from the tumble-up pitcher with the top shaping done by hand.

In a 1924 price sheet, pictured in Heacock/Measell/Wiggins' Harry Northwood, The Wheeling Years 1901-1925, the bedroom jug and tumbler cost $15.00 and the vase was $12.00. The water set wasn't listed on the price list.

If you like pastels, then the Concave Diamond pattern is a pattern that you could collect to fit into your collection. If you know of other pieces available in this pattern, please let Eleanor Mochel or me know, so we can include that info in a future bulletin.

CORRESPONDENCE

We're just back from the HOACGA Convention and recovered a bit. We wanted to thank everyone who worked so hard to make the Convention a success! This had to be one of the very best ones, and the pie idea was great!

Next year, please put the coconut cream pie in our room!

Thanks again for a great convention!

BIG COOKIES HANDLED BASKET

By Greg Dillian

I love the Spring! The longer days, warmer weather and blue skies mean winter is finally over. It also means that the flea markets and garage sales commence. The hunt begins and you never know what you'll find.

I was doing the rounds at a flea market last Labor Day weekend. It was early morning and it was gray and foggy with a heavy dew on the grass, and the glass as well. I came to a long table which looked like it held some promise. I spotted a small Millersburg crystal Country Kitchen ICS sauce. It was in perfect condition and priced right. I called for the vendor so I could pay for it and scanned the table one final time. My eyes stopped on a "Big Cookies" basket made by the Fenton Art Glass Co. Fenton made these in the late 1920's and 1930's, after they had ceased production of Carnival and stretch glass, in a myriad of non-iridescent colors both transparent and opaque including Jade Green, Pekin Blue, Mandarin Red, Ruby, Chinese yellow and Moonstone. I remembered reading that there was a single iridescent example known in amber stretch, a rare color in stretch glass for Fenton.

BIG COOKIES HANDLED BASKET continued...

The basket, which I was now holding, was frosty white with a wicker handle. I thought to myself that if this piece is iridescent it is a real find but because of the dew it was hard to tell if it was iridescent or not. My interest was heightened when the vendor said, "This is a nice glass basket and it has rainbow colors like Carnival Glass." It was in excellent condition, once again the price was right, and so after a bit of dickering, I enthusiastically bought it and the Millersburg crystal piece.

When I got home, I unwrapped the piece and cleaned it, and sure enough, it was definitely iridescent and had the onion skin effect indicative of stretch glass.

I emailed pictures of the piece to Dave Shetlar one of the co-authors of "American Iridescent Stretch Glass." Dave excitedly wrote back to say that this is the first known Big Cookies handled basket in Fenton's Persian Pearl color, or white to us Carnival collector's. It is the second known example in any color.

Big Cookies is Fenton's pattern #1681. It was made in two shapes- a handled basket and a covered cookie (or macaroon) jar. No iridescent pieces are known in the cookie jar shape. My basket is 10.5" across the top and has a 5.5" base. There is a pattern of stippled disks, or "cookies", which ring the bottom of the piece. Two protruding glass knobs at the top hold the wicker handle when they still exist. It is a very pretty piece of glass, indeed. The basket, in amber stretch glass, is pictured in both American Iridescent Stretch Glass by Dave Shetlar & John Madeley and in Fenton Art Glass 1907-1939 Margaret & Kenn Whitmyer.

It's always fun and exciting to find a rare piece of glass and that's what makes all the hunting worthwhile. Spring is here and I can't wait to be out on the hunt again.

Mararajah and Mararanee Shots

By Bob Smith

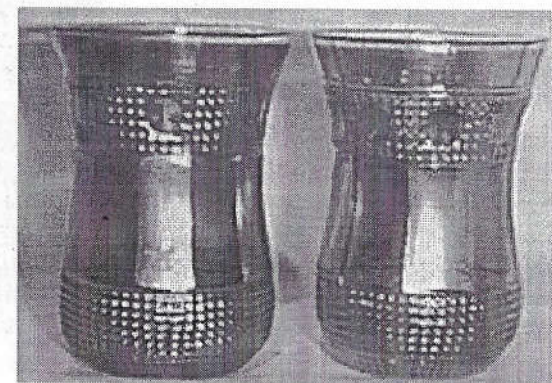

Here are a couple of delightful little shot glasses that will please both tumbler and miniature collectors. The Mararajah was brought to my attention by Australian collector John McGrath several years ago when he sent me photos of a set of them consisting of a decanter and six shots. Because of their unusual size for Indian tumblers I thought of them as the Indian equivalent of the Northwood Grape and Cabe shot set. Shortly thereafter the Mararanee surfaced, but as yet no complete set of this has yet been found.

Although these are not signed with the Jain logo, they were most likely made by Jain as they have all the characteristics of better Jain tumblers - clarity of the design; brightness of color; and quality of the workmanship. Another shot called the Moon and Stars is known, but when placed side by side with the Mararajah it becomes apparent that they had a different manufacturer.

The design is simple, but effective for their size. The measurements for both are: 2 3/4" high, 1 15/16" rim and a 1" base. Both have a band 3/4's of an inch high around the bottom filled with miniature squares. Below the rim is a similar band roughly 1/2" wide. The difference comes in the panels between these bands - nine panels for the Mararajah and twelve panels for the Mararanee. The Mararajah has nine circles in the upper band and the Mararanee has six. A few more have surfaced since the initial discovery, but they should be considered very scarce.

Happy Hunting!

Antiquing The Old Fashioned Way

By Jerry & Carol Curtis

We began our 9,000 mile, 3-month trip on December 8, 2004. We crossed Wolf Creek Pass and began our hunt for Carnival Glass. In a small town in Colorado, we checked out two shops that we had visited before and purchased a White Orange Tree Plate. We had seen this plate for several years in another shop but the price was a little high and we had passed it up. We learned the owner of the plate had quit her business and had now placed it on consignment. We were told of another shop that we had not heard of or visited before, so off we went. In this shop we found a Blue, Imperial Fernery and a Liqueur Decanter with (2) shot glasses in Marigold and a pattern we had never seen before. The Fernery was priced right but the Decanter Set was too high, or at least Carol thought so, but, she indulges me occasionally and I purchased the set.

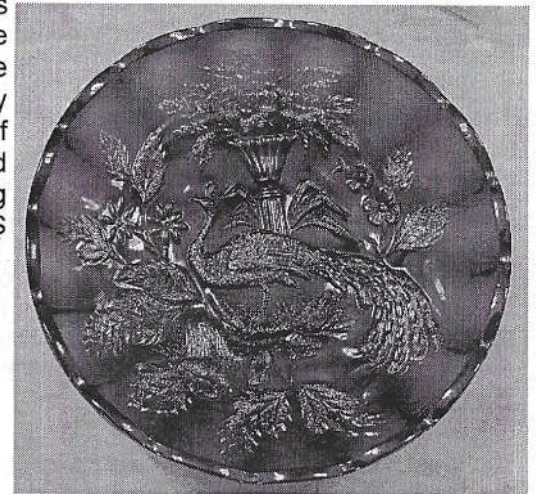

The pattern is etched into the glass and resembles an exotic tree or plant. The sides of the decanter have etched ovals. The accompanying stopper is not iridescent but could have been the original stopper. Efforts to identify the pattern or maker have so far been unsuccessful. If you recognize the pattern or know the maker, please contact us.

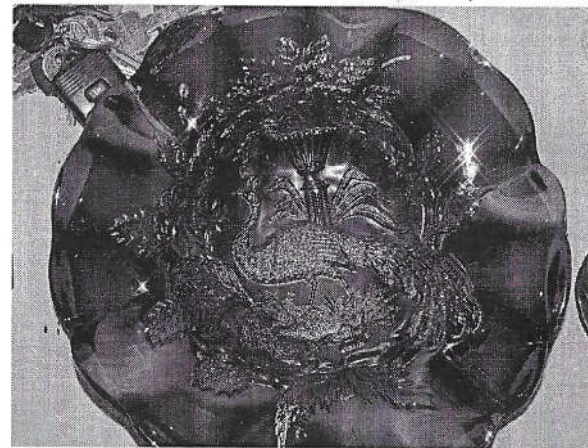

Last year, after the 2004 HOACGA Convention, Carol and I had returned to Oklahoma to visit family and friends. While there, I became ill and had to spend a few days in the hospital. Upon my release, my Doctor told me to take it easy on our return trip to Colorado. Carol and I decided to do so by antiquing on the way home and take two or three days to make the 820-mile trip. We visited a town in Oklahoma that we hadn't checked out the shops in several years. As we were visiting with one of the shop's owners they inquired as to what we were looking for. When we said Carnival Glass, they immediately went to one of the booths and unlocked and brought out a stunning Millersburg Peacock ICS Bowl!

The booth was dark and the Amethyst Bowl was in a bottom shelf that could not have been seen had you not known it was there. We purchased the bowl and asked the owners to contact us with any future pieces they thought we might be interested in. Three days before our trip was to begin, we received an email from the owners that stated they had just gotten another Peacock bowl like the one we purchased in the Spring. They promised to hold it for us so we included that stop on our trip. Sure enough, they had a second Millersburg Peacock, 8-ruffled bowl in purple. Needless to say, we purchased the bowl. How unusual is it to find two beautiful Millersburg bowls out of the same shop in such a short time span? Lady Luck had smiled upon us once again!

THE MYSTERY AUCTION

By Eleanor Mochel

Have you guessed the Mystery Auction by now? Henry Schroeder of Bloomington, MN was the first to write in with the correct answer.

The Auction was that of Mary Elizabeth Collier held February 6-7, 1976 in St Louis, MO. Charles and I were fortunately able to attend and see the outstanding glass and enjoy the fun and enthusiasm in the auction room. John Woody, the sales manager, stated on the auction brochure that "taking into account all of the carnival we have handled and sold at auction, we have never sold the equals of this collection. In quantity and more importantly in quality, this is the finest." Mary Elizabeth was a discriminating collector and the glass reflected that careful selection. Although this auction was 29 years ago, it would still rank up there with the best ones.

Michael Lewellen had written and suggested that we have an article on the Collier collection. I hope you have enjoyed it.

The prices the auction brought will follow. It is interesting to note some prices now are 14 to 17 times what they were then while others have stayed close to the same.

World Wide Web Convention At Dublin, OH

By Don Lacock

I left Delia, KS and arrived at my cousin's home about 11:00 am. Ann has a large van, but I still had to down-size and Ann did also. Ann, Fred, Brian and myself finally were packed on the van and on our way to Dublin, OH. While traveling down the road, I was telling them about bidding on a tumbler at Mickey Reichel's auction on March 26th. Ann picked up her cell phone (we were about 35 miles West of Booneville) and called Mickey. He said I had gotten the tumbler #42 Diamond Cut Shields, so we stopped at Booneville to pick it up. What was so good about getting this tumbler was that at an earlier Mickey Auction, I had purchased the matching pitcher, both in marigold.

We arrived in St Louis about the middle of the afternoon. Being at a Casino, I said, "Somebody is going to have to show me how to win." Early Tuesday morning, we left for Columbus, OH. We stopped for gas several times and had breakfast and lunch on the run.

We arrived at the Marriott early afternoon, checked in and went to our rooms and unpacked. It was then off to the grocery store to shop for the Hospitality Room. Tuesday evening there was an Early Bird buffet/reception.

Wednesday morning, two busses full of anxious carnival enthusiasts left for the Fenton Factory in Williamstown, WV. We arrived before lunch and went immediately to one of the new museum rooms where Frank Fenton talked to us. We then ate lunch in one of the new museum rooms and George & Nancy Fenton and several other employees gave us some highlights of the early carnival and molds. We then went on tours of the factory in groups of 10 and ended up shopping in the gift shop. We arrived back at the Hotel late in the afternoon.

Thursday, a Show and Tell program was hosted by Debra & Kris Remmen. We then left for Stacy & Des Wills home for a cookout, which was great. Their carnival glass was super. I saw many pieces I had never seen before.

Friday morning was a scavenger hunt in the rooms that had glass for sale. Everyone seemed to enjoy the hunt. Friday evening was the Banquet. Deane Fry & Brian Pitman were the Banquet Speakers.

Saturday morning was the auction and the glass being sold was super.

When the Banquet was over, those persons wishing to go to see the Millersburg Courthouse, the Hershberger Antique Mall in Charm, OH and then on to an Amish dinner to be held in a farm building left in cars for the journey. Every aspect of that side trip was wonderful. May shopped in the Hershberger Mall and the Amish meal was super with plenty of food served family style.

We all enjoyed the convention and then it was soon to be time to go to the HOACGA Convention where they were to celebrate Fenton's 100 years in business.

WE HAVE LOST A FRIEND

By Wilma Thurston

Norman Bosselman of Grand Island, NE passed away April 18, 2005.

Norman was a farmer most of his life. He served in the 2nd World War and loved going to the Annual Meeting of the Army Company that he was in during the War.

Norman and Annetta were married more than Sixty-years. When Annetta got interested in glass and started going to the Conventions, Norman was willing to go and help her. He wasn't as knowledgeable on glass as Annetta, but he loved meeting the people and talking to them, that was a joy for him.

Annetta, Norman, Paul and I started the Collectible Carnival Glass Association. Norman was always there willing to help any way he could.

Norman leaves his wife, Annetta, and one son, Curtis.

Our prayers go out to Norman's family and friends, he will be greatly missed.

Cards may be sent to:

HOW LUCKY WE WERE

Randy Poucher

By John Nielsen

Those who have met Randy Poucher a few times may have been aware he was a bank director who had helped start a successful bank. Some of you knew he was the owner of a successful electrical contracting business and enjoyed sponsoring his apprentice electricians so they could obtain their license. Those who had seen him in carnival glass auctions knew he was devoted to Jackie; if she wanted a piece of glass it was all over — Randy would hold his card up until everyone else had fallen by the wayside. But there was much more to Randy than his work and his love and enthusiasm for carnival glass. How lucky we were when Randy and Jackie joined the group who founded SSGCA. He was determined to make SSCGA a success; he and Jackie ran our convention for the first two years when everything tried to go wrong and they succeeded in making it work. They then volunteered to run the hospitality room and we discovered the club couldn't pay for anything — Randy and Jackie with Bette and Jim Chapman paid for all of the basics and members contributed the extras. Jackie told us they did it because they loved meeting the people in our wonderful hobby as much as they loved the glass. When Randy could no longer travel and we moved our March club meeting to the Poucher's home, Randy couldn't thank us enough — but we knew how lucky we were to see him again.

Randy's troubles are over, but his passing leaves an empty spot in our hearts as it does in the worldwide carnival glass society. How lucky we were to have him as a friend for those few short years — but our luck ran out. Our deepest sympathy goes out to Jackie, and to Jackie and Randy's family members. He will not be forgotten; he will live on in our hearts and our thoughts.

CONVENTION REPORT - 2005

By Bob Grissom

The 32nd HOACGA Convention is now history. Each day, starting on Tuesday through Friday brought new arrivals. From the first arrivals to the last ones to leave on Sunday, everyone seemed to enjoy another opportunity to visit with friends and talk glass. The Embassy Suites Hotel with its two-room suites adds a lot of comfort and convenience, and along with its openness gives the hotel a friendly atmosphere. The cooked to order breakfast each morning and the Managers Reception each evening was a very popular meeting place.

THANK YOU: The officers of HOACGA want to thank all of the members that helped with the many activities. Without your help the convention would not have been as pleasant for all of those in attendance.

CONVENTION HIGHLIGHTS: The winner of the $1000.00 drawing was Richard Young. Congratulations, and thanks to all that participated.

WEDNESDAY EVENING: HOACGA had a hospitality room for those early arrivals, about 60 people enjoyed Ham and Turkey Sandwiches, Chips & Dip, Salad, Barbecued Meatballs, Soft Drinks, and Cookies. Afterwards about 40 members enjoy playing dirty bingo.

ROOM DISPLAYS: Thank you to all of those who brought and set up a Room Display, they are always a very important part of any Convention. The Room Display award was an Ice Blue large Butterfly. About 40 rooms had a display. The winners were:

"PEACOCK TAIL"	Gale Eichhorst
"PAINTED TREASURES"	George & Pat Housewright
"SALUTE TO FENTON"	Gail Westphall
"25 FOR 25 YEARS OF FENTON"	Jim & Kelani Lee
"FENTON FACTORY"	Don Lacock

A big "THANK YOU" to all of those that set up a room display. Your efforts make a large contribution to the convention. Everyone looks forward to seeing all of the displays. It is very educational, several members commented about how much they appreciate the room displays.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM: We were privileged to hear stories from some long time collectors, Marie Capps; Jerry Curtis; Reg Dunham; Carl & Eunice Booker; Carl & Fern Schroeder; Bob Grissom. Many names of long time collectors were mentioned and how they had been an influence on there collecting. Thanks for each story.

PIE HOSPITALITY: For many years the club has served pie and coffee after the Educational Program on Thursday evening. The pie and coffee has always been supplied by the Hotel, but this year, because of the cost, we decided to purchase the pies from a local Co. and serve the pies from different members rooms. It was not as organized as well as it should have been, but everyone seemed to enjoy the pie that they were able to find, and all 30 of the pies were consumed. Next year we will have it better organized. But, as it was everyone seemed to enjoy the pie that they were able to find.

FENTON GLASS DISPLAY: Since this is The Fenton Glass Company's 100th Anniversary it was decided to have a major display of Fenton Glass. Thirty two members brought about 400 pieces of various patterns and shapes display. This was truly an outstanding display. When you looked at these pieces of glass it was obvious that Fenton made a lot of Carnival Glass. Judy Maxwell spoke about the glass, since there was so many pieces it was not possible to talk about each piece within an hour time frame. If you were not present for this program, then you missed much information and seeing an outstanding collection of Fenton glass. Thanks to all of the members that participated by bringing glass and also those that helped with setting it up. This was a very interesting & educational display.

BANQUET PROGRAM: We were privileged to have George Fenton, President of The Fenton Art Glass Company as our speaker. He told of how the Company was started and some of the milestones the company has experienced over their 100 year history. This being their 100th Anniversary there is a lot of demand for his time. We are very thankful that he was able to spend 3 days with us. Many members enjoyed the opportunity to visit with him.

"THE JOHN & LUCILE BRITT AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN CARINIVAL GLASS" is given each year not only to honor the Britts, but, to recognize a collector(s) who has demonstrated their dedication and service to Carnival Glass. The 2005 recipient of this award, Judy Maxwell exemplifies the true spirit of this distinguished award. Gail

Westphall, Bo Patterson, Richard Cinclair, and Tom Mordini revealed some interesting information about Judy. One of the outstanding things about Judy, she is always willing to contribute to the collectors knowledge by presenting educational programs at many conventions. Aileen Oppenlander, the Britt's daughter made the award presentation.

AUCTION: The 360 pieces of carnival glass from the Carl & Ferne Schroeder collection was assembled for viewing on Friday evening. About 300 people attended the Saturday morning auction which was presented by the Seeck Auction Co. About 120 bidding numbers were given out. We want to thank Carl & Ferne and the Seeck Auction Co for presenting the auction at the 2005 HOACGA convention. We understand that the Schroeders and Seeck Auctions was pleased with the final results of the auction.

ANNUAL MEETING: It is required that an Annual meeting be held at 2:00 P.M. on the fourth Friday of the month of April. At this time two of the five officers were elected. Officers re-elected this year were Bob Grissom as President, and Ann McMorris club Secretary.

SILENT AUCTION: Ed Kramer was again responsible for obtaining the many items for the silent auction. Thanks to Ed and all of those who donated items for this fund raising event.

JOHN AND LUCILE BRITT AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN CARNIVAL GLASS

By Cliff Ball

In 1993 the Heart of America Carnival Glass Association decided to give John and Lucile Britt a special award for all that they had done over the years to advance the hobby of collecting carnival glass. They were honored at the 1993 convention of the association.

Later in that year the association voted to establish an annual "John and Lucile Britt Award" which would be presented in the Britt's name to an individual or couple who had exhibited excellence in furthering the hobby.

Those who have been honored over the years are:

She and her husband, Ed, met at a youth group in a Southern Baptist Church in Southern California when she was 17 and he was 19. They will have been married for forty five years in August. They have two daughters and seven grandchildren.

JOHN AND LUCILE BRITT AWARD

Judy says that she is fortunate to have known Don Moore, Charlotte Williams, Marie McGee, Marie Capps, John Muehlbauer, John Resnick, Gail Westphall and Dean and Diane Fry. All of them and many of you, she says, have contributed to her knowledge and love for Carnival Glass.

BOARD MINUTES

By Ann McMorris

Minutes of the meeting of the Board for the Heart of America Carnival Glass Association in Lawrence on April 7, 2005. Board members present were President Grissom, Vice President Lacock, Treasurer Ball, Secretary McMorris and Bulletin Editor Mochel.

Planning for the 2005 convention

The Board reviewed the various activities and program for the April 20-24 Convention.

We checked the status of the room display souvenir, the club souvenir and banquet favor; Britt luncheon presenters; various seminars; Fenton glass display; preparation for evening activities - (ie hospitality room, Bingo, cake and coffee and pie hunt) . The new notebook insert on Bonbons and Nappies will be ready at convention time.

Ann reported the pre-registrations are coming in slowly. She will plan the decorations for the banquet tables and run the registration desk with the help of Don and other volunteers. Various signs needed at the registration table were discussed. The hotel provided a room listing of reservations for the HOACGA block. Eleanor and Bob will handle the preparations for the hospitality room and Don will assist.

Treasurer Ball reported a balance of $12,474.54 in the account. He will present the annual report at the annual meeting following the Britt luncheon on Friday, April 22. The election of officers for President and Secretary will be held at that time.

Bob reported he has called a gathering of the officers of various carnival glass clubs for Thursday evening during the convention to discuss merging of conventions into one.

Adjournment.

2005 HOACGA SOUVENIR

By Bob Grissom

The 2004 HOACGA Souvenir was the Cobalt Blue Guest Set. Since this is the 100th Anniversary of The Fenton Art Glass Company, forty-five of the 2004 souvenir sets have been decorated with a design to commemorate this Fenton milestone.

The etched on design will include the official 100th Anniversary Fenton logo along with the HOACGA logo (Good Luck Horseshoe with the Whip). They will also have a painted enameled design on the body of the Pitcher and also on the bottom of the tumbler - you can see as it sits inside the pitcher.

This will be a very limited number with this 100th Anniversary special design. There will only be 45 of these Souvenirs made. We believe it will be a fitting souvenir for this occasion. The price for this Souvenir is $125.00 (shipping cost $10.00). They may be ordered using the Souvenir & Book Order form which is included in this bulletin - Page 32.

NOTEBOOK SECTION

By Bob Grissom

This year's addition to the HOACGA Notebook is on Bonbons and Nappies. The section describes and contains information about 48 known Bonbons and 14 Nappies. Many of these are either one of a kind or only a very few known. This information is assembled for the benefit of the collector in order to add to your carnival glass information and for future reference. This section may be ordered with the Pre-registration form, which is in this bulletin, or you may purchase it at the convention.

Have you kept your Notebook up to date with all of the Sections that have been added? The Notebook was started in 1980 with Mugs being the first and new sections have been added each year, with the exception of two years. If you have not added each section to your Notebook you are missing some very good carnival glass information. Back sections will be available at the convention. Please order using the Souvenir & Book Order Form on Page 32.

CORRESPONDENCE

I just received the April, 2005 issue of the HOACGA Bulletin, which I always look forward to reading.

I found the opening article, "Double Star / Buzz Saw" by Alan & Lorraine Pickup most interesting, but do not have their address. At the close of their article they stated, "this is just our thought on these patterns, what do you think?"

I happen to have one of the 3" green Buzz Saw Cruets, I do not have the stopper. But, it certainly is the Buzz Saw pattern and NOT the Double Star.

I have looked very closely at the cruet and it does NOT have a trademark anywhere on it, inside nor outside.

I have had the cruet from the late 1960's. It has beautiful iridescence and I treasure the piece.

Thank you.
