President's Letter

Gary Sullivan

AS Steve and I drove away from the Embassy Suites hotel in Kansas City, I thought to myself that this convention went exceedingly well. From the display room, Thursday's online auction, Friday's luncheon, Saturday's auction to our Saturday night banquet and presentation, I thought that they were all very successful. And that is a testament to the hard work that each of us puts into a convention. Over a dozen people brought Northwood "Blue" carnival glass to the convention so that we could put together a fabulous display.

I want to thank everyone for helping set up risers, for organizing the display, all those who brought glass and anyone else who offered to help throughout the convention. It is very much appreciated. Bob and Shirley Patterson shared glass from their collection with us at the banquet. If you have not had an opportunity to meet them, you are missing out on some wonderful people. The presentation glass and Bob's stories that went along with them were wonderful.

Jim and Jan Seeck brought two wonderful groupings of glass to be auctioned off. Thursday night, they held an on-line only auction of contemporary carnival glass. I want to thank Bob and Sandy Sage for allowing their mom's (Dolores Sage) glass to be sold at HOACGA. Dolores was an icon in carnival glass due to her tireless efforts to promote the glass and mentor young collectors through Iridescent Nation. Steve and I went home with Dolores' plum opal Christmas Compote and we are very happy. As the on-line auction was going on, I looked around the room and saw many lively conversations happening which I viewed as people having a great time and I think the on-line auction format was a very successful experiment.

The Seeck's Saturday auction glass was from the collections of Judy Maxwell of California and the Naphins' from Canada. Walking into an auction room for the first time is still a thrill for me. Although I have looked at all the pictures on line, the glass all laid out is always a sight to behold. Bidding, both online and on the floor, was lively and exciting and I hope everyone got that one piece they were hoping for. I did.

At the Friday luncheon we got to honor two individuals who have served HOACGA and all carnival glass collectors. Ann McMorris was HOACGA's secretary and helped organize many conventions. Eleanor Mochel was the newsletter editor (and a charter member) back when everything was done manually-it was a very time consuming job that had an end result everyone enjoyed. Bob Grissom was also honored and his son Brian gave a touching speech about his dad and the work that he has done over the years for HOACGA. It is wonderful to show our appreciation to those who dedicate a portion of their lives for our benefit.

Gary's Pacific Northwest Mugs

AN important element at any convention is the attendees bringing glass to share with others. Through room displays (see article included) and room sales, we get to see a lot more glass; and visiting rooms is a great way to meet people and catch up with friends. I want to thank everyone who brought glass to share. When I walk into a room with glass sales, I usually know within 10 seconds if there is something that needs to go home with me. It happened again when I picked up five contemporary Pacific Northwest mugs for $5 each.

It is an honor to be selected as HOACGA's next President. I know that I and all the members of the board are dedicated to carnival glass and all of its collectors. I want to personally thank Bob Grissom for his years of dedicated service to Heart of America. I

Y-2019— CHANGING TIMES Bob Grissom

Welcome to the 2019 HOACGA Board of Directors.

The three elected at the 2019 Convention are Gary Sullivan, President, Joan Doty, Editor of Historical & Research, and Tony DeMichael, Treasurer.

The three holdover Directors are Rod Kaps, Vice President, Kathi Johnson, Secretary, and Steve Hazlett, Newsletter editor. With the many changes and challenges that have and are occurring in the Carnival Glass collecting, you have some challenges ahead.

.The Heart of America Carnival Glass Association had its beginning in 1972 when the members decided to have a convention at the Best Western motel in Lenexa, Kansas. Ed Guida was the Banquet speaker and John Woody had an auction. Davis Shikles was elected President and served only one year. To-date only six members have served as President, Davis Shikles, Sarah Love, Cheryl Bollinger, George McGrew, Cooley Miller and Bob Grissom. I have had the privilidge of serving as President and representing HOACGA for 34 years. It has been a rewarding experience and I am very thankful for the opportunity to be associated with the Carnival Glass collectors.

Since its inception HOACGA has strived to be an organization that is dedicated to serving not only the needs of its members, but all Carnival Glass collectors. Since its inception there has been an annual convention, which provides a place for collectors to gather and discuss information about their common hobby. Educational talks about many different subjects are provided by knowledgeable collectors. Special displays are organized where members supply items for the benefit of those in attendance. Members bring their know I have large shoes to fill and he has assured me that he will be there to help in any way he can.

We look forward to next year's convention, same place same time, where Jim and Jan will auction off contemporary glass from Roy Hieger's collection on Thursday and classic era glass from Travis Reyen's collection on Saturday. The contract with Embassy glass and setup displays in their rooms for others to observe various carnival glass patterns, shapes, colors, etc.

Each year a Carnival Glass auction (supplied by an approved Auctioneer) is a part of the Convention activities. This was established for the benefit of the collector, whether he is buying or selling. In addition to the Auctioneer supplied auction, Hoacga started a Auction for Contemporary carnival glass. Several members have collected some of the reproduced carnival glass form the 70's, 80's and 90's, so Hoacga started an auction where collectors can dispose of some of their Contemporary Carnival Glass. This has proven to be beneficial to several members.

HOACGA has, with the permission of John Britt, taken many of his articles, written over several years and had them printed and bound into a booklet so this information would be available at the present time and also for future collectors. HOACGA purchased the rights to the "Hartung Pattern Books" and had them reproduced so this info would be available for the collectors. HOACGA researched and had printed various Carnival Glass sections i.e Punch Sets, Vases, etc and created a Notebook of these various sections.

HOACGA has previously undertaken the task of transferring the clubs and other written material to the internet for the convenience and benefit of not only the present but the future collector or just for the availability of the information. IT IS HOPED THIS PROJECT WILL CONTINUE. IT IS IMPORTANT TO RETAIN THIS INFORMATION IN A WAY THAT IS MORE BENEFICIAL THAN HAS PREVIOUSLY BEEN PROVIDED FOR THE COLLECTORS.

Suites is signed and filed and we look forward to another great experience.

From classic to contemporary, from a five dollar piece to a twenty thousand dollar piece, from friends and fellowship to education, we want to ensure that a HOACGA convention has something for everyone.

One Last HOACGA Convention Report: 2019 from Bob Grissom

The 2019 Hoacga Convention was April 24-28, 2019, at the Embassy Suites Hotel (Kansas City Airport).

Wednesday evening: This kind of sets the tone of the convention: Members are arriving, some arrive by plane and others by car and they are all ready to relax and take advantage of the "Managers Special" (Happy Hour), meeting old and new friends. This is an enjoyable relaxing time that is all part of included benefits of the EMBASSY SUITES HOTEL.

Special Display – This activity gets several members involved in the convention: One of the first activities of the Convention is setting in place the necessary equipment, tables(8), shelving (24 ft), background cloth(64 ft), lighting(16 ), & the necessary Nuts, Bolts, Screws to assure the stability of the display with the glass in place. Also the necessary speaker system for the presentation. This occurs Wednesday evening late with the help of six to eight members volunteering (One of the dependable workers was not with us this year Arnold Snell, who had passed away the Saturday before.)

Thanks to all of the help for this stage of the Display.

The Display featured about 170 pieces of "Northwood Blue" of the darker colors, cobalt, blue, renninger and sapphire. The purpose of this display was for an opportunity to compare the various darker blues. There are at least 20 different variations of blue(Ice blue, aqua opal, persian blue, etc) pieces. It was also an opportunity to compare the differences in the iridescence on the same pieces and pattern. Tom Mordini presented the discussion of the display along with several questions and thoughts from the membership. Thanks Tom for a very informative explanation of the items in the display. Joan Doty organized the display and prepared the informational handout. It was a very outstanding and educational display. Thank You to both Tom Mordini for the presentation and Joan Doty for suggesting the topic and for organizing the various pieces.

HOACGA has had many displays over the past years, this was a variation from the normal display.

Again a Thanks You for those members that supplied the pieces for the display. Thanks Wally McDaniel for arranging all of the 170 or so pieces in the proper place in the display.

Room Display: "Room Displays" are one of the traditional aspects of Carnival Glass conventions. The displays always add to our educational experience.

Each room having a Display received a Mary Ann Vase (Contemporary)by Mosser Glass. Displays winning one of the category's below won a monetary award of $50.

The display judged best overall and the Peoples

Contemporary Auction— This was a sale of the Dolores Sage collection. This was an On-Line auction of about 100 pieces, everything went well for the first On-Line auction. Bob and Sandy and Jim Seeck were very pleased with the results. HOACGA served cake and coffee for those in attendance. It was announced that some of the Roy Heiger Contemporary glass will be sold at next year's auction. The idea of a Contemporary auction started about 10 years ago for the purpose of members having a way of disposing of some of their Contemporary Carnival Glass.

Luncheon – Friday 12:30 p.m.—"The John & Lucile Britt Award" has been given to a HOACGA member since 1993. It was replaced this year by a "Special Recognition Award," which was given to a Carnival Glass Collector who has demonstrated their dedication and service to Carnival Glass.

Eleanor Mochel and Ann McMorris were the first recipients of this award.

Eleanor served as the Bulletin Secretary for about 20 years. She wrote many of the articles and had the newsletter, printed, addressed, postage stamp affixed, and took it to the Post Office for mailing.

Ann McMorris, as Secretary, maintained the records of the organization for 20 or more years. Ann was also active in the functioning of ICGA for several years.

Annual Meeting – Friday 2:00 p.m. Each year three of the six officers of HOACGA are subject for election or re-election. This year the President, Treasurer and Research & Historical Editor terms were up. I have had the privilege of serving as President for several years but, time has come for someone else to enjoy this privilege. I have been an active member of HOACGA for more than 45 years and have enjoyed being a part of this organization, and the many persons involved as Board members and as a Carnival Glass collectors.

Congratulations to the Newly Elected Directors and a Thanks to all of the Directors for your service.

See page 5 for more information.

Auction — Saturday The Auction glass for 2019 was from the collections of Judy Maxwell & Dennis & Linda Naphin. Seeck Auctions were in charge. Thanks to Judy and Dennis for choosing to have your Carnival Glass sold at the 2019 HOACGA convention.

Banquet and Program A big thanks to Bob & Shirley Patterson from Cerritos, California as our Banquet Speakers. Bob is a rather active Carnival Glass collector. He is always finding some different and unusual pieces. Bob & Shirley have been active members and instrumental in the success of the California Clubs and have been members of HOACGA for several years. We appreciated your presentation, also the time and distance of your traveling for your presentation. It was most interesting and informative.

Thanks

It may have been something simple to you... but meant everything to me and to my folks.

I want to thank the club for having the Award (Britt Award) for my folks for so many years. Carnival glass club meant so much to my folks and all the many friends they met thru the years. They were so honored.

Congratulations to Eleanor Mochel and Ann McMorris for the 2019 Award (Special Recognition Award). They were very hard working women and deserve this award.

Best wishes for a great 2019 Convention. Haylee and I will miss being there but she had school obligations.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

By Emmett Morgan

Our next meeting will be hosted by David Kastor on Saturday June 22. See the schedule in this issue and be sure to RSVP as David is providing lunch. His collection has GROWN!

The officers of your club want to thank everyone who attended our 2019 convention, which was the 40th anniversary of our club. The attendance was the largest since 2009, which was our 30th anniversary. Evidently, when you provide a commemorative carnival glass gift celebrating your 10-year anniversaries the members really turnout from more than 15 states. ☺ We hope you enjoy your commemorative 474 vase in Honey Amber. A BIG thank you to the winning, generous bidders of the 474 whimsies, as your club recouped their vase costs plus.

It was a pleasure to honor our dear friends Carl and Eunice Booker with the Whitley Award for 2019. This wonderful couple epitomizes this award in giving so much back to our hobby.

Bob and Sandy Sage out did themselves in arranging all our speakers. Thursday afternoon Tom Bumpass educated and entertained everyone with his wit, southern drawl, and beautiful carnival. Cal Hackeman, President of The Stretch Glass Society, wowed everyone in his educational presentation on Stretch Glass with many rare, beautiful examples. Our banquet speakers hailing from Millersburg, Ohio, were Randy and Bo Jones. Their presentation, "Looking for a Needle in a Haystack: Rare and Hard-to-Find Millersburg" and display of 80 or so fabulous pieces of carnival. This was the most valuable display we have had the pleasure to view at our convention. Thank you, Randy and Bo, for your love and sharing of Millersburg.

Carl and Eunice Booker receive the Whitley Award for their contributions to Carnival Glass.

The All-Star Award is presented to a member who has given their time, efforts, and talents that benefit our club. Walt and Sam Robinson were presented the award at our banquet. {See photo on cover}

I would like to thank the following members for their hard work that make the convention successful.

- ❖ Registration Packets: Bob and Sandy Sage, Tom and Jeannie Whitley and Dorothy Morgan
- ❖ Silent Auction: Walt and Sam Robinson and David Kastor and all the members who won the silent auctions
